The last Division was declared at the Annual Meeting held on the 6th July, 1868. The Profits then divided were at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum, or 7½ per cent. for the three years. Thus a Policy of £500, taken out before 1st November, 1865, has £37 10s., three years' Profits added to it; a Policy of the same amount, taken out before 1st November, 1867, has £12 10s., one year's Profits added; while the total accumulated Profits on a Policy of £500, taken out in 1845, the first year of the Society's existence, now amount to the large sum of £401 0s. 4d.

The next Division of Profits will take place in July, 1871.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1869.

Government-house, 18th October, 1869.

THIS DAY His Excellency the Governor prorogued the First Session of the Fourth Parliament of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope,—the Legislative Council and House of Assembly being assembled in the State Room at Government-house,—and His Excellency was pleased to deliver the following Speech:

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL,

MR. SPEAKER AND GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY,

I have found it necessary to request your attendance here this day, with a view to the closing of the Session, in consequence of the Government having been placed in a position which compels it, without any unnecessary delay, to take steps for ascertaining the opinions of the Constituencies of the Colony on the measures which have been discussed during the Session, and on the principles on which the Government of the Colony ought for the future to be conducted. It was my hope, even up to the last week that such a step might have been avoided, and that I should have been spared from inflicting so much inconvenience and possibly no inconsiderable expense on those who represent the Country in Parliament. But the transactions of the last few days have extinguished that hope, and shown not only that an appeal to the Country is indispensable, but that it must be made at once.

And therefore, as I am compelled to invite an expression of opinion on the policy of the future, to be founded mainly on an examination of the past, it is incumbent on me briefly to review some of the proceedings of the Session, and to point out how, in the opinion of the Government, more satisfactory results can be attained in the future.

At the opening of the Session, I called your attention to the condition of the Colonial Finances, and pointed out the desirableness of increasing the Revenue to the extent of £50,000 a year, recommending that it should be obtained from an Income and Property Tax, to be levied from all classes of the community. This source of Taxation commended itself to my mind for many reasons. It would be paid by all except the very poor, and the machinery required might have been beneficially used for the better collection of the other revenues already accruing to Government, the payment of which is now much evaded.

It would also ultimately, as it was made to extend and include persons not at first subject to its payment, have resulted in a largely increased income, and have enabled the Government to propose reductions in present sources of Taxation, which bear unequally, and injuriously affect Colonial Trade.

The percentage I proposed was very small, and would not have pressed heavily on any one, and I still think, if increased Taxation must be resorted to, which no one now denies, this is the Tax which would be most evenly distributed and would have the most certain results.

I did not suppose, nor at any time lead you to think, that increased Income to the extent of £50,000 a year would be all that was required to place our Finances in a proper condition; but I had no doubt that with that, and a continuance in the course which for several years past I have steadily pursued, of reducing the Expenditure whenever practicable without the infliction of too great sacrifices upon the People, or unduly increasing the burden for Pensions, and with the increase of income from Land, and some other sources from which a natural and steady increase is certain, the balance between Revenue and Expenditure would, at no distant date, have been adjusted.

The House of Assembly saw fit to view things differently, and resolved the Equalization of Revenue and Expenditure should be sought for in Retrenchment upon an extensive scale, and called upon me to show in what way that could be done. Their Address received my most careful and anxious consideration. I complied with the request to the best of my ability, and showed the only way in which, in my judgment, the equalization aimed at could be effected.

The scheme of reduction which I introduced, in compliance with their request, was summarily rejected by the House and they proceeded to discuss Retrenchment from their own point of view; and, although it became day by day more evident that by no such process could equalization be effected, this alone for many weeks remained the engrossing subject of discussion. Some measures of reduction which at first commended themselves to the House were subsequently abandoned, and the chief of those finally resolved upon appeared to be so unequal in its application, and so indefensible in point of principle, that I was compelled to decline rendering any assistance in the promotion of it. Time passed, and when at last the pressing necessity for additional means became manifest to all, a large number of Members became weary of attendance and returned to their homes, leaving the chief business of the Session almost untouched. Again the Government was compelled to remind the House, thus reduced, of the necessity for additional Taxation, and to propose the Taxes which appeared to be the best substitutes for the Income Tax.

These were not entertained, but a Bill was passed through the Assembly for adding 25 per cent. to the already too heavy impost upon those imported goods which pay an ad valorem duty, by means of which it was assumed that the Public Income would be increased by at least £30,000 a year. I was very much opposed to that additional charge upon the Trade of the Country, and had at the opening of the Session expressed my opinion that we were already too dependent upon Customs Duties, which, besides being disadvantageous to Trade and Commerce, are liable to great fluctuations, and can never safely be calculated upon to yield any certain amount. This Bill was lost in the Legislative Council, and the decision of the Council in regard to it appears to have given very general satisfaction.

At last alterations have been proposed in the temporary Appropriation Bill submitted by the Government for 1870, reducing the vote below what is required on the scale of Expenditure sanctioned for 1869, and indicating by a mere explanatory Schedule that the Government is expected to carry out Retrenchment based on calculations we believe to be erroneous, and opposed to existing Law, and for which the House had been told that precise legislation has not been attempted; and as legal provision for the Service of the Government has been made only up to the end of the present year, I cannot lose a day in submitting the questions between the Assembly and the Government to the decision of the Constituencies.

My observations have thus far been addressed to the one question of the equalization of the Revenue and Expenditure, but it is very necessary for me here to observe that, under the influence of such relations between the Parliament and the Government, all the chief interests of the Colony have been neglected.

This, the First Session of the Fourth Parliament, it was hoped by the Government and expected by the people, would have been one during which measures of vast importance to the welfare of the Country would have been initiated and considerably advanced, if not finally decided upon; and, at least, a commencement made, by means of well-directed enterprise and beneficial undertakings, to raise the country from its present depressed condition—depressed in spirit, more than in actual circumstances, and requiring only energy, exertion, and enterprise to ensure future prosperity.

Not a single other question of much general importance has been satisfactorily dealt with during a Session that has lasted nearly four months. It cannot be otherwise than injurious to any country when those whose appointed duty it is to administer its affairs from year's end to year's end, who alone exercise authority over its servants, who possess the best means of information,—when those in such a position find that the measures they have framed, with much care and trouble, may be rejected in the Legislature, with little examination, by those who are free from any responsibility for that rejection, and who, returning to their homes, can dismiss the subject altogether from their thoughts until another Session affords another opportunity for repeating the process.

It appears to me, therefore, to be essentially necessary that the Constituencies should deliberately consider whether or not the present form of Government is such as they desire to have, and, if not, then what changes should be made,—whether the Colony shall be brought under Party Government, or whether the Legislature shall be so modified as to afford the Executive Government, in its present shape, some prospect of obtaining support.

The former of these alternatives has, since the establishment of the Parliament, been frequently, indeed, in some shape, constantly before the eyes of the public, though ... it appears to me, without having made any progress. In the present condition of the population and society of the Colony, I am unable to see how Party Government could be introduced with any prospect of a satisfactory result. My acquaintance with the Colony does not show me where a sufficient number of competent men could be found in circumstances so independent as to admit of their giving themselves up to political life subject, as they must be, to the inevitable contingency of being turned out of office and deprived altogether of official incomes. Moreover, it would be essential to the good government of this Country that the Representatives of the Eastern Districts should furnish their proper proportion to the Ministries that might be chosen.

There might be perfect readiness on the part of the Western Members to render justice to the people of the East; but it is no disparagement to them to say, that a purely Western Ministry would be much embarrassed in dealing with a population and interests in many respects so essentially different. And to Eastern Members an entire separation from their homes and from their personal interests would be peculiarly inconvenient.

The other alternative evidently is a material reduction in the numbers, and a simplification of the form of the existing Legislature. To some, no doubt, such a change will present itself in the unpalatable shape of retrogression. But it may be well, even for them, to bear in mind that when the present Parliament was established, the concession went far beyond the expectations of all, perhaps beyond the wishes of many of those who had been striving to obtain more liberal Institutions.

The very fact of these having attained to no further development may be fairly accepted as evidence of their having been premature, and as a justification of the views of those who hold, like myself, that a return to a less complicated form of Government would be very beneficial to all. Probably a Legislative Body so small as that which I recommended in the course of the Session would not meet the wishes of the People; but there seems to be a likelihood that the establishment of a single Chamber comprising about half as many members as the House of Assembly might be accepted as most suitable to the present state of the Colony.

There are few other questions to which, on this occasion, I feel it necessary to advert. With regard to the Native Question, speaking of it in its ordinary application to the Natives within and beyond the Colony on its Eastern Border, I have received an Address from the Legislative Council, communicating, to my regret, their opinion "that the system generally adopted in the Colony in relation to the Natives" tends directly to the production of great evils. These are strong terms, but I am inclined to hope that the evils are more referable to the fact that the Natives exist, and did exist before we came to the Colony, than to the system, whatever that may be, that has been introduced by us. In dealing with Native Questions, the Governor is the agent of two powers, the Home Government and the Colonial Legislature, both of whom are nervously sensitive to responsibility, both desirous of the improvement of the Natives, but the latter not a little anxious that that improvement should assume a form directly profitable to themselves, and disposed to regard industry, especially for the benefit of an employer, as one of the highest moral virtues, to the encouragement of which our policy ought always steadily to be directed. I do not look for much success in attempts to make people industrious by law, neither can I regard it as an unmixed evil if the industry of the Natives should be a good deal directed to the extension of their own operations and the augmentation of their own wealth.

I have never ceased to pay attention to these questions, and have ever regarded it to be of chief consequence that the Natives should be thoroughly convinced of the justice of our rule, and of the benefits which must accrue to them from its continuance. The maintenance of peace and tranquillity is our first object. The greater the advance made by the Natives in material prosperity, the better guarantee shall we possess for its attainment. Several years have now passed since there has been any disturbance on the Eastern Border. I believe that at no time have our Farmers on that Border felt themselves more secure; and I am compelled, in vindication of what is termed "the System," to add, that I do not think I have done anything calculated to impair that security in the future. I look upon the ultimate subjection of all these Tribes to civilized rule, in some shape, as inevitable, and I have endeavoured to pave the way for that change, by gaining their confidence and testifying a friendly interest in their welfare.

It would have given me great satisfaction if I could have spoken in like terms of the condition of affairs on the Northern Border, where another Native Question has now arisen.

Indeed, the present position of the Government, with respect to that District, is so painful and embarrassing, that I cannot allow this occasion to pass without a brief explanation of it.

You are aware that the acquisition of a large part of that Territory is comparatively of recent date. That it came into our hands by accident, almost by mistake, without any previous communications with its Tribes. That the latter never rightly comprehended the change; that they have never been brought systematically under the operation of law; that they have been much pressed for food in consequence of the gradual withdrawal of the game on which they used to subsist. At the same time, wandering Farmers from the Colony have driven their Stock nearer and nearer to the haunts of the Tribes, until, at last, the Government has been compelled to make a determined effort for the suppression of disorder. Of the conduct of the Frontier Police in the execution of this service I cannot speak too highly, but the success which has attended their efforts does not go very far towards clearing the way for the Government. But our operations have not been and cannot be restricted to those of the Police alone. Other auxiliaries must be employed, not under the same control; and the Government cannot be indifferent to the very painful occurrences which have resulted, and which must produce a state of chronic war tending to the extermination of these unfortunate people. It is under such circumstances, to charge the Government with indifference to the Farmers, with a desire to paralyse their efforts at self-protection with using the machinery of the law for the purposes of oppressing the All these accusations find a ready acceptance, and we must be prepared encounter them, without allowing them to draw us aside from what believe to be the line of our duty. You have granted the authority necessary for the measures immediately in contemplation, and no time will be lost in bringing them into operation.

I have not received from Her Majesty's Government any instructions on the affairs of Basutoland of a later date than those already before you.

In conclusion, I have to acquaint you, that I shall immediately dissolve the House of Assembly, with a view to the reassembling of Parliament in the first week in January next.

I trust that the Constituencies will carefully weigh, and distinctly express their opinions on the issues which I have now presented to them.

The Government will employ the interval in a careful preparation of the measures to be submitted in the next Session, directing them to the reduction of all unnecessary expenditure, to the increase of the efficiency of the Government, and to the promotion of enterprise and industry throughout the Colony.

I now, in Her Majesty's name, prorogue this Parliament of Her Majesty's Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, to Wednesday, the 10th day of November next, and it is hereby prorogued accordingly.

TENDERS FOR THE CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

General Post Office, Cape Town,
15th October, 1869.

NOTICE is hereby that given Sealed Tenders, addressed to the Honourable the Auditor-General, and marked "Tender for Inland Mails," will be received by that Officer until Friday, November 12, 1869, at 12 noon, for the conveyance of the following Mails:—

Between Caledon and Bredasdorp, viâ Springerskuil and Fairfield, one a week each way by Cart (Passenger or other).

If a Tender for this line be accepted, the Contract will commence on 1st May, 1870, and will terminate on the 31st December 1872, but either of the contracting parties will be at liberty to terminate the same upon giving four months' notice, in writing, to that effect.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

No Tender will be attended to unless prepared in proper form, in conformity with this Notice, and of which copies may be obtained either at this Office, or that of the respective Civil Commissioners and Postmasters.

The Tenders must include all intermediate Post Offices between Stations.

It is desired that the Tenderers should state the number of relays of Horses to be used, and the Stations at which they will be kept; as, also, at what price they will engage to convey extra Posts or Expresses on Horseback on the Post Line for which they tender.

Payment will be made to the Contractor monthly, either at the Colonial Treasury in Cape Town, or by the Civil Commissioner of any Division he may select; provided the Contract Bond shall previously have been transmitted to this Office, duly completed, which Bond the Contractor will be required to execute in the presence of two competent Witnesses, together with two good and approved Sureties, to be provided by him, for the due fulfilment of the Contract; and he must accompany his Tender with a written engagement from his Sureties to bind themselves as such; as, also, with a Certificate from the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate of the District in which he resides, as to the sufficiency of such Sureties. In the Tender, the names of the Contractor and his Sureties should be stated at full length, and their respective occupations should also be mentioned therein. The Security required will, in each case, be equal to the payment to be made by Government to the Contractor for one year of the Contract.

The Contractor will be required to provide his own means of conveyance for crossing rivers, without detention; and all penalties for delay, from whatever cause arising, will be rigidly exacted. Any party tendering is required to specify in his Tender the means to be adopted by him for crossing or avoiding swollen rivers, either by applying some contrivance, or leaving the usual line, and also the delay, if any, to be allowed on such occasions.

The Tenderers are required to convey the Mails in covered Carts on springs, conveyed by not fewer than two horses each (with exception of Blinkwater and Post Retief).

The Contractor's Carts are to be light, but strong, sufficiently large to contain the Mail Bags, and to be furnished with Waterproof Wells, or Boxes, with strong Locks and Keys, to hold the Mail Packets, for enclosing and securing which it will be necessary for the Contractor to supply Waterproof Bags; or, failing these, the Cart is to be supplied with Tarpaulins, to be strapped over it and over any Mail Packets that may have to be secured to it, and which are to be lashed on with good stout riems. The Carts to be provided with two good Lamps, with strong Reflectors, which are to be kept lighted at night when travelling.

The Contractor is bound, at his own expense, to provide the means of protecting the Mail Packets from the weather, or injury in transferring them from one Post Cart to another, on the line of road herein referred to, and will be held responsible for any damage which may occur to them whilst being transferred from his charge.

The Contractor will be at liberty to carry such number of Passengers or Parcels in the Mail Vehicle as he may think fit, and to make his own charge for the accommodation thus afforded; provided that part of the Box or Well of the Cart specially to be appropriated for the Mail shall not be mixed up with any other Packets, &c., not appertaining to such Mail.

But the Contractor will not be allowed to carry in his Vehicles, by himself or any of his Servants, any Letters or newspapers, excepting those delivered to him by the respective Post masters, or for delivery at any Post Office, nor are they knowingly to permit any Passenger to carry any Letter or Newspaper.

The Post Rider shall be provided by the Contractor with a Bugle or Horn, to be sounded when approaching any Post Office or Post Station.

For any detention of the Mail, or any part thereof, beyond the time specified for the distance allowed, the Contractor shall forfeit according to the following scale:—

For every period not exceeding half an hour	0	2	6
" half an hour, and not exceeding one hour	0	7	6
" one hour, and not exceeding an hour and a half	0	15	0
" one hour and a half, and not exceeding two hours	1	5	0
two hours, and not exceeding two hours and a half	2	0	0

and for every additional half-hour beyond two hours and a half, the additional sum of Ten Shillings.

In the event of the Contractor failing or neglecting for three Posts in succession to convey the Mails within the time herein stipulated, the Postmaster-General for the time being, in that case to have it in his power, should he so think fit, to advertise for Tenders for a new Contract without any reference to the clause for giving four months' notice for an earlier termination thereof (which clause is to be null and void); and any loss that may accrue by reason that the terms of the new Contract are higher than the terms of the old is to be borne by the Contractor.

And inasmuch as serious irregularities have arisen from changing Vehicles and shifting the Mails, the Contractor will have to bind himself that as often as any Post Boy of his shall receive any Mail Bags or Post Office Packets into any Vehicle at any Post Office, such Bags and Packets shall be carried to their destination in that same Vehicle, and that none of the said Bags or Parcels shall, between the Post Office where the same were received and the Post Office where the same should be delivered, be shifted or removed from that Vehicle to any other Vehicle or mode of conveyance, unless with the permission and in the presence of some Postmaster, or unless the Vehicle carrying the same shall, by accident or other cause arising after the same shall have been received, be rendered incapable of carrying on the Mail to its destination. And for any and every breach of this stipulation the Contractor will have to pay to the Postmaster-General for the time being whatever penalty he shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds sterling.

In case any Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail shall not be regularly delivered at the same time as the rest thereof, the Contractor shall be bound to pay to the Postmaster-General, for or in respect of every such lost or missing Bag, Packet, or other part of any Mail, such sum as the said Postmaster shall see fit to demand, not exceeding Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, unless the Contractor shall prove that such Bag, Packet, or other part of any such Mail was lost or delayed by inevitable accident against which it was impossible to guard. And the Contractor shall likewise be liable to the Postmaster-General, claiming on behalf of whom it may concern, to make good all loss or damage sustained by any Person whomsoever, by reason that any Mail or Bag, Parcel, or other part of any Mail, shall have been lost or delayed for want of due and proper care and diligence of the Contractor, or any person in his service.

Should the said Contractor fail in the performance of his agreement at any period during the existence of the same, then, and in that case, it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General for the time being, and for all Persons thereto authorized by him, to hire, or cause to be hired such Person or Persons, Horse or Horses, as shall be required for the due performance thereof; and all and every expense attendant upon the same shall be borne and sustained by the said Contractor.

And it is lastly agreed that in case of any act of omission constituting a breach by the Contractor of any of the provisions or stipulations of this Contract, not being an act or omission for which any other particular penalty is hereinbefore provided, the Postmaster-General shall have the option of claiming from the Contractor, for and on account of every such act or omission, respectively, the payment of Ten Pounds Sterling, by way of assessed and liquidated damages, and not as a penalty; or otherwise, of claiming and recovering such further or other sum as the said Postmaster shall prove to be the amount of loss or damages actually sustained from or by reason of such act or omission.

The Contractor will be bound to provide a passage in his Mail Conveyance for an Officer of this Department, when travelling on public business, without charge, when required so to do.

Further information may be obtained on application at the Office of the Postmaster-General.

CHARLES PIERS, Postmaster-General.

Master's Office, Cape Town,
18th October, 1869.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

To the Sheriff of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or his lawful Deputy.

WHEREAS, upon the petition to His Honour the Chief Justice of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and other the Judges of the Supreme Court of our said Colony, of SEBASTIAN VALENTYN HOFMEYR, of Cape Town, Cashier of the Union Bank of Cape Town, against GEORGE FRANCIS, lately of Graham's Town, it appears to us of record that the said GEORGE FRANCIS is indebted to the said SEBASTIAN VALENTYN HOFMEYR in the sum of One Thousand One Hundred and Fifty Pounds Sterling (£1,150), with the Interest thereon from the 27th day of July, 1867, being the amount of a certain Mortgage Bond, originally amounting to One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixteen Pounds Thirteen Shillings and Fourpence Sterling (£1,916 13s. 4d.), dated the 7th day of March, 1863, passed by HENRY KNIGHT TREDGOLD, q.q. GEORGE FRANCIS, to and in favour of CHARLES POTE, of Graham's Town, and by him transferred by underhand cession on the 25th day of April, 1863, to MACKIE, DUNN, & COMPANY, of Port Elizabeth, and by P. A. BRAND, q.q. MACKIE, DUNN, & COMPANY, by notarial cession, dated the 21st day of September, 1865, passed before the Notary J. H. REDELINGHUYS, back to the said CHARLES POTE, and by J. A. TRUTER, q.q. CHARLES POTE on the 26th day of August, 1869, to and on behalf of the said SEBASTIAN VALENTYN HOFMEYR, in his aforesaid capacity;

And whereas the said GEORGE FRANCIS is possessed of Property, both real and personal, in this Colony, and did in the year 1866 depart from his said Dwelling-house, situate at Graham's Town aforesaid, and has left this Colony and still remains absent, and thereby defeats and delays the said SEBASTIAN VALENTYN HOFMEYR and the other Creditors of him, the said GEORGE FRANCIS, in obtaining payment of their Debts to them due and owing, and did thereby commit an act of Insolvency; whereupon the said SEBASTIAN VALENTYN HOFMEYR prayed that the Estate of the said GEORGE FRANCIS might be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors;

And whereas it further appears to us of record that the Honourable JAMES COLEMAN FITZPATRICK, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, did, on the 9th day of October instant, by an order under his hand, place the Estate of the said GEORGE FRANCIS, under sequestration in the hands of the Master of the Supreme Court, until the same should thereafter be adjudged to be sequestrated, or the said petition should be discharged:

Now, therefore, we command you that you summon the said GEORGE FRANCIS that he appear before our Justices of the Supreme Court of our said Colony, at Cape Town, on the 15th day of November, 1869, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any, why his Estate should not by decree of the said Court be adjudged to be sequestrated for the benefit of his Creditors; and return you then there this Summons with whatever you have done thereupon.

Witness: The Honourable SYDNEY SMITH BELL, Esq., our Chief Justice of our said Colony at Cape Town, the 15th day of October, 1869, in the 33rd year of our Reign.

Registrar of the Supreme Court.

AN ACT

TO

Amend the Ordinance No. 16 of 1847, intituled "An Ordinance for the better Regulation of Pounds and Prevention of Trespasses."

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend in certain respects the Ordinance No. 16 of 1847, intituled "An Ordinance for the better Regulation of Pounds and Prevention of Trespasses:" Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. So much of the Ordinance No. 16 of 1847 as is repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed.

II. No stallion above the age of two years which shall hereafter be lawfully impounded shall be released by the owner thereof, or sold out of the pound, without being previously castrated, unless such stallion shall be released under the provisions of the fifth section hereof.

III. Every such stallion not released under the provision of the fifth section hereof shall be castrated by the poundmaster, if competent to perform such operation, or by some other competent person employed by him at his own expense, and such poundmaster shall be allowed for the performance of this duty a fee of ten shillings, to be recovered from the owner of such stallion, if known, or deducted from the proceeds of sale, should such animal be sold out of the pound: Provided, however, that no such fee as aforesaid shall be recoverable from the owner in respect of any animal which shall die while in the poundmaster's keeping in consequence of such castration.

IV. No stallion shall (except as hereinafter is provided) be castrated under the provisions of this Act until it shall have remained impounded for at least five weeks; and any stallion not sooner released by or on behalf of the owner thereof shall, subject to such regulations as may be in force at the date of such sale, be sold at the first pound sale occurring after the expiration of forty-five days from the date of such stallion having been impounded: Provided, however, that if the owner of such stallion shall give his consent, or shall decline to release it under the fifth section hereof, such stallion may be castrated forthwith, and shall be castrated without unnecessary delay should the owner thereof desire to release the same under the ordinary provisions of the law.

V. The owner of any stallion which may hereafter be impounded shall be entitled to release such stallion without its being castrated, upon payment of pound fees and other charges, and upon giving security, to the satisfaction of any resident magistrate or justice of the peace or field-cornet, for the payment of any fine or penalty and costs of suit recoverable under the fifty-first and fifty-fifth sections of the said Ordinance: Provided, always, that every such owner shall be entitled to tender to any person claiming any penalty under the sections aforesaid, such sum as he shall consider adequate to cover such fine or penalty as aforesaid; and in the event of such tender being refused, the person claiming any such fine or penalty shall be condemned in the costs of such legal proceedings as he may afterwards institute for the recovery thereof, unless the court in which the same shall be pending shall award such fine or penalty as shall exceed the amount so tendered.

VI. The provisions of this Act shall extend to any trespass committed, or pound erected, within any municipality.

VII. This Act shall not take effect or be in force within any division of this Colony until such division shall, at the request of the divisional council thereof, have been proclaimed by His Excellency the Governor in the Government Gazette as made subject to this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Governor to make such proclamation as aforesaid at the request of any such divisional council as aforesaid.

VIII. The word "stallion" shall include a male ass not castrated.

WHEREAS difficulties have arisen from time to time in collecting from persons residing on certain Crown lands reserved for the purposes of native tribes within this Colony, commonly known as Native Locations, occupation rents for huts or dwellings erected or occupied by natives on the Crown lands within such reserves or locations, which rent has been commonly called hut tax: And whereas it is expedient that the law as to such occupation rents or hut tax should be declared, and that facilities should be given for enforcing the payment thereof: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. It shall be lawful for the civil commissioner of the division within which any such native location as aforesaid shall be situate, or for any other person thereto authorized by the Governor by publication of such authority in the Government Gazette, to demand and sue for, receive and give receipts for a sum of ten shillings yearly, in respect of each hut erected or standing for the time being on any Crown land within any such native location as aforesaid, occupied, or used, or claimed within the same for any portion of any such year in respect whereof such sum is or shall be demanded or received, which shall be paid by the occupier or person using or claiming [illegible] any such portion of any such year as aforesaid.

three calendar months after the same shall become due and payable, as hereinafter by the fourth section provided, it shall be lawful for such civil commissioner or other person authorized to demand the same as aforesaid, in addition to the ordinary remedy by action for the recovery of such sum to attach and seize, to answer the same, and the costs of such levy and seizure and subsequent proceedings, a sufficient amount of the cattle, stock, and other movable property of the person liable to pay the same, and if payment shall not be made within fourteen days after such seizure, sufficient of such cattle, stock, and other movable property to answer the demand and the costs of levy and seizure and sale, shall be sold by public auction, unless before such sale shall have been actually made the person claiming such cattle, stock, and movable property shall commence in some competent court an action for the recovery of such cattle, stock, and movable property, and shall also find and give sufficient security to prosecute such action without delay, and abide and perform the judgment thereof in the premises, which judgment, if adverse to the plaintiff, may be not only for the amount of hut tax for which such seizure as aforesaid shall have been made, but also for the costs of such levy and seizure lawfully incurred up to the time of such security as aforesaid being duly given as well as for the costs of the action itself.

III. Upon such security as in the last clause mentioned being given, and approved of by the court in which the action for the recovery of the said cattle, stock, and movable property shall have been commenced, the said cattle, stock, and movable property shall be redelivered to the person claiming the same.

IV. Such sum of ten shillings shall become due and payable in each year on the thirty-first day of December, in respect of the year ending on such day, and shall thereupon be paid by the person liable to pay the same to such civil commissioner or other person duly authorized as aforesaid, at the office of such civil commissioner, or such other place as the Governor shall by proclamation appoint for that purpose, as regards each such location, without the necessity of any demand being made therefor.

V. In case no person can be found who shall claim or shall have occupied or used any hut chargeable under this Act at any time during the year ending with the thirty-first day of December in any year, the civil commissioner, or such other person so authorized as aforesaid, may cause such hut to be destroyed.

AN ACT

FOR

Regulating the Execution of Capital Punishment.

WHEREAS it is desirable that, whenever circumstances will admit of it, capital punishment should in this Colony be carried into effect within the gaols: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. In any and in every case in which, after the passing of this Act, any prisoner shall be sentenced to death, it shall be lawful for the Governor, if he shall be satisfied that fitting arrangements for the same can be made within the gaol in which such prisoner shall for the time being be confined, to order, by warrant under his hand, that the sentence of death shall be carried into effect within the walls of such gaol.

II. The high-sheriff or deputy-sheriff charged with the execution, and the surgeon, gaoler, and such other officers of such gaol as the high-sheriff or deputy-sheriff may require, shall be present at such execution, and any justice of the peace for the division in which such gaol may be situated, and any minister of religion residing therein, and such relatives of the prisoner or other persons as the high-sheriff or the deputy-sheriff may deem proper, may be admitted within such gaol, for the purpose of being present at such execution.

III. As soon as may be after judgment of death has been executed on the offender, the surgeon of the gaol shall examine the body, and shall ascertain the fact of death, and shall sign a certificate thereof, and deliver the same to the high-sheriff or deputy-sheriff; and all other persons who shall be present under the provisions of the preceding section, together with the high-sheriff or deputy-sheriff, shall sign a declaration to the effect that judgment of death has been executed on the offender, and such certificate and declaration shall be forthwith transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, to be filed of record in his office.

IV. The Governor may from time to time make such rules and regulations as to him may appear expedient, for the purpose of guarding against any abuse in such execution, and of giving greater solemnity to the same, and of making known without the walls of the gaol the fact that such execution is taking place.

V. The omission to comply with any provision of this Act shall not make the execution of judgment of death illegal in any case where such execution would otherwise have been legal.

[ACT No. 4 of 1869.]

AN ACT

TO

Authorize the Cape Copper Mining Company (Limited) to construct a Tramway or Railway between Port Nolloth and Nonams, and to build a Jetty at Port Nolloth.

WHEREAS it is desirable and expedient that greater facilities should be afforded for the transport of minerals from the mines in Namaqualand to Port Nolloth, and the shipment of the same at the said port, and also for the shipping and landing of passengers, goods, merchandise, and other articles at, and their transport to and from, the said port: And whereas such facilities would be greatly promoted and the resources of the country developed by the construction of a tramway or railway between the said port and Nonams, and by the building of a jetty at the said port: And whereas the Cape Copper Mining Company (Limited), a company duly registered in England, and having a subscribed capital of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds sterling, is willing to undertake the construction and working of the said tramway or railway and the building of the said jetty, on being empowered for that purpose in manner hereinafter mentioned and provided: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, as follows:

I. The Cape Copper Mining Company (Limited) shall be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to construct and work a tramway or railway between Port Nolloth and Nonams, or any part thereof, and to build a jetty at Port Nolloth, as shown by the plans duly lodged with the Clerks of the Legislative Council and of the House of Assembly and with the Civil Commissioner for the Division of Namaqualand, on the terms and conditions hereinafter contained.

II. It shall and may be lawful for the said company, and they are hereby authorized, to enter upon and to take possession of all such lands within the limits of deviation as shown by the said plans, and also to dig for, excavate, and carry away all such stones, clay, or other materials within or from waste Crown lands near to the said limits as may be required for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty: Provided that the extent of land taken or used for the said tramway or railway shall not exceed the width of thirty feet, with sufficient additional width for slopes, drainage, stations, stopping places, approach-roads, and all other works, matters, and things which may be requisite or necessary for the efficient construction and working of the said tramway or railway: And provided, further, that no such materials shall be taken for the purpose of constructing or maintaining the said tramway or railway and jetty from any Crown land within the limits of the village of Port Nolloth, as the same are now or may hereafter be defined by Government, without the previous consent of the Government, nor from any private lands within the same limits without the previous consent of the owner thereof. And, further, it shall and may be lawful for the said company, and they are hereby authorized, to enter upon and take possession of all such beach and other lands lying above and below high-water mark, and as may be required for approaches to and site of the said jetty, as shown on the said plan, and also in like manner to enter upon and take possession of forfeited erf 1,799, marked 8 on the said plan, in block C, and also the road lying between blocks B and C, marked or numbered 14 on the said plan, and also the Government ground adjoining blocks B and C to the east, north, and west, as shown within the limits marked by a dotted line on the said plan: Provided that the proprietor or person holding by lease from the Crown the lands so taken possession of and of the materials so carried away and used shall be paid by the said directors the just value, by way of recompense or compensation for the interest of the said proprietors or lessees in such land or materials, or for any damage which may be done by reason thereof.

III. In the event of the said company and any such proprietor or the person claiming compensation not being able to agree upon the sum to be paid by the said company and accepted by such proprietor or person claiming compensation, then the said company shall cause to be served upon such proprietor or person claiming compensation a written notice offering as recompense or compensation whatever sum of money they shall deem sufficient, and requiring such proprietor or person claiming compensation to state in writing to the said company within thirty days, to be specified in the said notice, whether he is willing to accept the sum therein mentioned or not; and in case he shall refuse to accept the sum offered, or shall neglect to reply to the said notice, then the said company shall, by another notice in writing, call upon such proprietor or person claiming compensation to refer to arbitration the amount of recompense or compensation to be paid to him by the said company, and for that purpose to transmit to the said company within thirty days to be specified in the said lastmentioned notice, the name of some person whom he shall select to be an arbitrator upon such arbitration; and the said company, upon receiving the name of the person so selected, shall nominate a second arbitrator, and the said arbitrators shall, before proceeding in the arbitration, choose a third arbitrator; and the said company shall cause a deed of submission to be prepared, which shall be signed by the agent, general manager, or representative of the said company in this Colony, and by the said proprietor or person claiming such recompense or compensation as aforesaid, and which deed shall clearly set forth the matter to be determined by the said arbitrators. And the said arbitrators, or any two of them, shall be authorized to fix and determine the amount of compensation to be paid as aforesaid, according to what they shall conceive fair and reasonable; and the award of the said arbitrators, or any two of them, may be made a rule or order of the Supreme Court, and shall be binding and conclusive, and may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding at law brought for or on account of the subject-matter referred to arbitration; and in case such proprietor or person as aforesaid claiming compensation or recompense shall neglect or refuse to name some person to be such arbitrator as aforesaid, or to sign the said deed of submission, then it shall be lawful for the said company, and they are hereby authorized, to lodge in some joint-stock bank in Cape Town the sum of money offered by them as aforesaid, for or on account and at the risk of such proprietor or person as aforesaid, who shall at all times be entitled to draw the same out of the said bank as his absolute property. And the said company, upon so lodging the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take and use the land or materials in question as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, and had been paid accordingly. And thereupon, or upon payment of any sum which may be awarded, or which may be agreed to be accepted as and for recompense or compensation as aforesaid, the said land shall be held and taken to be vested in the said company as fully, absolutely, and effectually as if transfer and conveyance thereof had been duly passed by the respective proprietors thereof or parties interested therein, in favour of the said company, according to the law and custom of this Colony, or as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said company a sufficient title thereto had been duly done and performed; and the said materials shall be held and taken to be, and shall be, the free and absolute property of the said company: Provided that the cost of the arbitration as aforesaid shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

IV. It shall and may be lawful for the said company to enter upon and take possession of, and to hold and retain for all the purposes of this Act, free of any charges, so much of any Crown lands as shall be required for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty, or for any other purposes relating to the execution of this Act, and also to enter upon all Crown lands not previously leased by the Government to any lessee lying convenient to the said tramway or railway and jetty, and there to dig for, excavate, and carry away all such stones, clay, or other materials as may be required or be serviceable for the construction and maintaining of the said tramway or railway and jetty: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall establish any servitude in favour of the said company for procuring materials for the said tramway or railway upon any land which may at any time hereafter be sold or leased by the Colonial Government to any purchaser or lessee thereof.

V. The company shall be bound to construct and maintain, and at all times to keep in good repair, a sufficient and convenient road not less than twenty feet in width for public use, from the public street at Port Nolloth to the said jetty; but in constructing the same, or the said jetty, or any other works at the shore at Port Nolloth, no stonework or embankment shall project or be carried further seaward than low-water mark at spring-tide.

VI. The said tramway or railway shall commence from the said jetty at Port Nolloth, and shall proceed thence to Jules Hoogte, thence to the Kama River, thence to Oograbis, thence to Anna Poort, thence along the plain by Muishondfontein to foot of mountain at Nonams: Provided, however, that it shall be lawful for the said company to deviate from and vary the said line within the limits of deviation shown by the said plans; and, further, that it shall and may be lawful for the said company to terminate the line at any point between Port Nolloth and Nonams: Provided such terminal point shall be at a distance of not less than twenty miles from Port Nolloth.

VII. At all places where the line of the said tramway or railway, or any deviation thereof within the limits of deviation hereinbefore provided, shall intersect or cross the line of any street or road, it shall be lawful for the said company to make and carry the said tramway or railway across such street or road, either by means of a level crossing or by a convenient and sufficient bridge or viaduct over or under the said street or road. And the said company shall be bound and obliged to make all such cuttings, embankments, and approaches, with all such culverts and drains as may be requisite to make good the said street or road across, or over, or under the said tramway or railway, at gradients not exceeding one foot in twenty feet. And the said company shall be bound and obliged to maintain and keep in repair all such crossings, bridges, viaducts, cuttings, embankments and approaches, culverts and drains, as aforesaid. And in all cases where any street or road shall cross the said tramway or railway, no engines, carriages, trucks, or other vehicles shall be allowed to remain athwart such crossing, but shall pass such crossing without unnecessary delay, so as to interrupt as little as possible the free use of such road.

VIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall hinder or prevent any public roads hereafter to be constructed under Act of Parliament or proclamation lawfully issued under Act of Parliament, from being made and carried across the said tramway or railway at all requisite and convenient points: Provided that as little damage as possible shall be caused to the said tramway or railway by such crossings.

IX. All damage which may be caused by the construction of the said tramway or railway and jetty to any roads or streets shall be repaired and made good by the said company, so soon as practicable, at the cost and charge of the said company.

X. The said company shall be bound, and are hereby required, to finish and complete the said jetty, and not less than twenty miles of the said tramway or railway, extending from Port Nolloth towards Nonams, and to open the same for public traffic within three years from the taking effect of this Act, failing which all and singular the powers, rights, and authorities conferred by this Act shall cease and determine.

XI. So soon as the line of tramway or railway, or any section thereof, or the said jetty, shall have been finished and in a fit condition for work, the said company shall frame terms and conditions and a tariff of charges for wharfage and for the landing or embarking of passengers, and another such tariff for the conveyance of passengers and goods; and such terms, conditions, and tariffs shall be submitted to the Governor for approval, and if approved, shall be published in the Government Gazette for general information; and the said tariffs, terms, and conditions shall be thenceforth binding upon the said company for such period as shall be fixed and determined by the Governor, and specified in his approval of the same respectively. And upon the publication of any such tariff, terms, and conditions in manner aforesaid, the company shall, and are hereby authorized and required to open for traffic the said jetty or the said tramway or railway, or so much thereof as is so completed, or both, as the case may be: Provided, always, that the said terms and conditions and the rates so chargeable may from time to time be altered by the said company, with consent of the Governor; and the said company shall be entitled to recover by legal process all such charges as shall be in force for the time being from all passengers landed at or embarked from the said jetty or conveyed on the said tramway or railway and the owner of, or the person liable to pay such charges on goods, merchandise, articles, or things landed on or shipped from the said jetty, or conveyed by the company on their said tramway or railway; and, further, shall have the right of retaining such goods, merchandise, articles, or things, until the rates or charges due or payable for or in respect of the wharfage or carriage or conveyance thereof shall have been duly paid; and, further, on his or their failing to pay on demand such charges, it shall and may be lawful for the said company to sell by public auction at Port Nolloth such goods, merchandise, articles, or things, and out of the money arising from such sale to retain the charges payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, rendering the overplus, if any, and such goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto: Provided that fourteen days' notice of such sale shall have been previously given in the Government Gazette, and in any one or more newspapers published in Cape Town; and such notice shall be also affixed on some conspicuous part of the office of Customs at Port Nolloth.

XII. The said jetty shall be erected and constructed upon plans to be previously submitted to and approved of by the Government. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed as conferring upon the said company any exclusive right to landing and shipping goods or passengers at the jetty to be erected by them under the provisions of this Act, or to prevent the use by the public of all such portions of the beach at Port Nolloth as are not appropriated to the use of the said company by virtue of this Act, or the erection of a jetty or other works at such place or places on the said beach as shall be deemed expedient.

XIII. The said company shall be bound and obliged to establish and permit to be used so many stations or stopping-places upon the said line of tramway or railway for taking up and setting down passengers, and for receiving and delivering goods, merchandise, minerals, or other articles to be conveyed upon the said tramway or railway and any portion thereof, as the Governor shall from time to time direct to be established for public use, or for the use of any passengers or any proprietors or lessees of mines or minerals requiring to use the said tramway or railway. And the said company shall at all times thereafter allow to the public, and to proprietors and lessees aforesaid, free and convenient way-leave and access to all such stations or stopping-places over all lands belonging to or in the possession or occupation of the said company, with all cattle and vehicles to be used for conveying passengers, goods, merchandise, minerals, or other articles, to and from such stations.

XIV. The said company shall afford all reasonable facilities for the receiving, storing, forwarding, and delivering of goods upon and from the said tramway or railway and jetty, and no undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to or in favour of any particular person or any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, shall be given; nor shall the said company subject any particular person or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

XV. All tolls, fares, or rates for passengers or goods shall be at all times charged equally to all persons, and after the same rate, whether per ton, per mile, or otherwise, in respect of all passengers, and of all goods of the same description and conveyed or propelled in a like carriage and by a like power, passing only over the same portion of the line of tramway or railway, under the same circumstances; and no reduction or advance in any such tolls, fares, or rates shall be made, either directly or indirectly, in favour of or against any particular company or person travelling upon or using the tramway or railway.

XVI. No steam power shall be used for the conveyance of passengers upon the said tramway or railway, or any section thereof, until the certificate of the Colonial Engineer or other officer appointed by the Governor shall have been obtained, at the expense of the company, that the said tramway or railway or such section thereof is in a fit and proper condition for the safe conveyance of goods or passengers by means of such steam power.

XVII. WHEREAS, by the seventy-fourth section of the Land Beacons Act, 1865, it is provided that all expenses of resurveys due and payable by any landowner shall be recoverable by action in any competent court at the suit of the civil commissioner who shall have advanced such expenses: And whereas doubts exist whether the expenses of resurveys which were completed under the Land Beacons Act, 1859, before the Land Beacons Act, 1865, took effect, but in regard to which resurveys no fresh grants had been issued when the Land Beacons Act, 1865, took effect, are recoverable by action at the suit of the secretary of the divisional council, or by action at the suit of the civil commissioner: And it is expedient to remove such doubts, and also to enable the divisional councils to obtain the title-deeds and diagrams of farms resurveyed under the Land Beacons Act, 1859, of which farms no fresh grants have yet been issued: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

III. Such stock shall bear interest after the rate of four pounds and ten shillings sterling per centum of the nominal amount of such stock, from the first day of January or the first day of July next before the issue of the said scrip certificate, which shall last happen, and such interest shall be payable thereafter half-yearly, on the first day of July and the first day of January in each year, the first of such payments to be made on the half-yearly day which shall happen next after the opening of such credit in the books of the Treasurer-General as aforesaid, and shall be paid on such days respectively, or so soon thereafter as demand shall be made therefor by the lawful holder for the time being of such stock, to such lawful holder, or his duly authorized attorney, at the office of the Treasury in Cape Town.

The mayor, and two councillors to be elected for that purpose by the council, shall have the power, after hearing such objections in open court, to strike out of the lists the names of all persons not entitled to be therein, and also to insert in the said lists the names of any persons which have been improperly omitted.

XVII. The list so settled shall be called the Citizens' Roll of Graham's Town, and shall be brought into use on the first Wednesday in November in each year, and shall continue to be used for one year thence next ensuing.

XVIII. The mayor shall, immediately after the settlement aforesaid, cause such roll to be published by posting the same in front of the municipal office.

XIX. The mayor shall, at least ten days before the day appointed for the election in each ward, cause the names of the candidates for election thereat to be published as provided in the eighty-second section of this Act, and shall cause the names of the persons who have signed such requisition as is hereinbefore mentioned to be published by affixing the same on some conspicuous place on the municipal office.

XX. Within fourteen days after the publication of the names of the several candidates invited to stand as councillors, the mayor shall, by a public notice of not less than fourteen days, in accordance with the eighty-second section of this Act, call separate meetings of the citizens of each of the wards respectively, to be holden at some convenient place or places, for the election of the councillors required to fill the vacant seats out of the number of candidates invited for each ward, except when the number of candidates does not exceed the number of vacancies, as hereinafter mentioned.

XXI. Every such meeting for the election of any councillor or councillors shall be presided over by a returning officer, to be appointed for that purpose by the mayor. The poll shall commence at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and shall finally close at three o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.

XXII. At every meeting for the election of any councillor or councillors who shall have accepted a requisition in manner aforesaid every qualified citizen, duly enrolled as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote in person, but not otherwise.

XXIII. The votes shall be taken by ballot, and the person or persons having the greater number of votes shall be taken to be duly elected: Provided that all candidates shall have the right to be present, either personally or by proxy, during the whole time the voting is going on, and when the contents of each ballot-box are examined by the returning officer.

XXIV. If such ballot shall be rendered indecisive by reason of an equality of votes, the returning officer shall thereupon publicly determine by lot which of the persons shall be elected for whom an equal number of votes shall have been given.

XXV. In the event of the number of duly qualified candidates invited in writing to stand as councillors for any particular ward being only sufficient to fill the vacancies in the representation of such ward, the mayor shall forthwith declare such candidates duly elected.

XXVI. The returning officer for each ward shall immediately transmit the names of the persons elected, together with the final state of the poll, to the mayor.

XXVII. When the mayor has received the names of the persons so elected, or when he himself has declared persons elected as aforesaid, he shall forthwith cause a list of all such persons, with the names of the wards for which they are elected, to be published by advertisement in one of the local newspapers.

XXVIII. Of the persons so elected as hereinbefore mentioned, the councillor in each ward who shall have been elected by the smallest number of votes shall vacate his seat at the expiration of one year from the first Wednesday in July, and in case, by reason of any such councillors having been elected by an equal number of votes, or in the event of the election having been an uncontested one, it shall be uncertain which of them shall vacate his seat, the mayor shall cause such question to be determined by lot, and the remaining councillors for each ward shall vacate their seats in like manner, at the expiration of two and three years respectively; and upon the retirement from office of such councillors respectively, they shall be succeeded by councillors who shall be elected as hereinbefore provided, so that at every subsequent yearly election there shall be elected one councillor for each ward, who shall enter upon his office on the first Wednesday in July next after his election, and continue therein for three years; and every retiring councillor shall be eligible for re-election.

XXIX. If any councillor shall die, resign, or become insolvent or otherwise disqualified, or shall be absent from the meetings of the council for a period of four calendar months, his office shall be declared vacant, and another councillor shall be elected in his place and stead, in manner hereinbefore provided, who shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which the councillor who has vacated office, and whom he shall succeed, would otherwise have remained in office: Provided, always, that if such absence as aforesaid arise from sickness or other sufficient cause, the council shall be empowered to extend the term for one month longer.

XXX. At the second ordinary meeting after the annual election of the mayor in July, the mayor and council shall appoint from among the citizens two persons to be auditors of the accounts of the council, who shall continue in office until the same day in the year following.

XXXI. No person shall be eligible as an auditor who shall not be a duly enrolled citizen, or who shall be a councillor, treasurer, clerk, or other officer of the municipality.

XXXII. If any auditor shall die, resign, or become insolvent, or otherwise become disqualified, another auditor shall be elected in his stead, on a day to be fixed by the mayor.

XXXIII. In case of an equality of votes at any election of auditors, the mayor shall determine by his casting vote which of the persons for whom an equal number of votes shall have been given shall be elected, in case such persons cannot be both or all of them elected.

XXXIV. On the Thursday following every yearly election of councillors, those of the councillors then in office, together with the newly elected councillors, shall choose from amongst themselves, by ballot, the mayor of the municipality for the following year, and such mayor shall enter forthwith upon his office, and shall continue therein for one year then next ensuing, provided that the chair at such meetings of the council as shall be held for the purpose of such election shall be taken by some member of the council who is not a candidate for the office of mayor.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the mayor to resign his office, provided that he shall give to the council not less than one calendar month's notice of his intention so to do.

XXXVI. If any mayor shall die, or resign, or shall become insolvent or otherwise disqualified as a councillor, or shall be absent from the municipality without the permission of the council for one month, or shall neglect to attend the meetings of the council for the period of three months, such mayor shall be held to have vacated office, and the council shall elect out of their own number a successor for the remainder of the year, a week's notice having been given to each councillor of such election.

XXXVII. If any member of the council, or person holding any office in the gift or disposal thereof, shall, directly or indirectly, as agent or otherwise, have any share or interest in any contract with or employment by the council, otherwise than as a shareholder in any bank with which such council may transact business, or in any joint-stock company which shall contract with the council for the lighting or supplying with water or insuring against fire any part of the municipality, or shall receive any fee, reward, or compensation for any vote given or act performed in his capacity of councillor or officer, he shall thenceforward cease to be a member of the council, or to hold such office as aforesaid; and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds sterling: Provided that the case of the receipt of salary by an officer for the performance of the duties of his office, and that the case of a lease between the council and a councillor, as landlord and tenant, be excepted.

XXXVIII. The council shall have power and authority to the following acts: To make, alter, and keep in repair the roads, streets, dams, sewers, drains, and bridges within the limits of the municipality. To excavate, construct, and lay watercourses, water-pipes, conduits, sluices, dams, reservoirs, aqueducts, and other works for supplying the municipality with water, and to keep the same in repair, or to grant leave to any person or company of persons to lay down pipes, or to execute any other like works. To take order for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and for that purpose to provide and keep fire-engines, with pipes and utensils. To assize weights and measures according to the standards in force by law; to grant permits for any purpose to be defined by the municipal regulations of the municipality for the time being; and to levy tolls and dues as hereinafter provided. And by municipal regulations to do any of the following acts, that is to say: To regulate the time and place for slaughtering cattle, and the state and condition of the slaughter-houses, and the confining or killing of dogs, pigs, goats, and fowls. To appoint one or more competent persons to examine meat and other provisions and drinks exposed for sale, and who, in case such meat or other provisions or drinks be found unfit for human food or drink, shall be empowered to cause the same to be destroyed. To prevent and abate nuisances, and generally to devise and carry out all such measures as shall appear to be to the advantage and convenience of the municipality. To make regulations for the management of the common pasture lands of the municipality, and for fixing the number and description of cattle which each householder shall be allowed to depasture on such lands. To establish and provide for the management of public pounds within the municipal limits: Provided that no toll due, or fee, or charge for any permit, or any punishment or penalty, shall be imposed by reason of anything in this section contained, unless the same shall have been imposed by some such municipal regulation as is in the next succeeding section mentioned.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the council at any meeting, at which not less than sixteen of the members, shall be present, to frame from time to time all such municipal regulations as may seem meet for the good rule and government of the municipality and all such as may be expedient for the more effectual working of the powers hereby given.

XLI. After any municipal regulation shall have been so published as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary, in any proceeding founded upon it, to prove that sixteen members of council were present at the meeting at which it was framed, nor shall any evidence be received to prove the contrary.

XLII. It shall not be competent by any municipal regulation to provide for punishing the contravention thereof in any higher or more severe manner than by a fine not exceeding ten pounds: Provided that it shall be competent for any such municipal regulations to provide that if the person convicted of contravening the same shall not forthwith pay the fine imposed on him, he shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period prescribed by such municipal regulation: Provided, moreover, that such period shall not exceed three months.

XLIII. All land or immovable property heretofore vested in the council of the municipality now existing for the city of Graham's Town shall, after this Act shall come into force, and by virtue thereof, be transferred to and vested in the corporation heretofore mentioned, upon the like trusts and purposes for which the same were originally granted or transferred; and in like manner all liabilities, debts, contracts, or engagements incurred, made, or entered into by the aforesaid council for the time being, or their predecessors, on behalf of the municipality of Graham's Town, shall become and be the liabilities, debts, contracts, and engagements of the said corporation.

XLIV. The council may, with the consent of the Governor of this Colony, raise, by sale at public auction or by mortgage of any land or property belonging to the corporation, or by debentures on the security charged upon such land or property, any sum of money which shall be necessary in order to carry on any important public work, or other municipal purpose which the council shall deem desirable, and of which the Governor shall approve: Provided that the council shall, at least two months previously to such intended sale, or mortgage or issue of debentures, cause to be published a full and clear statement of the situation, nature, and extent of such land or property, and the object and purpose for which the money is required.

And whereas the council of the municipality of Graham's Town, elected under the provisions of the Act aforesaid, No. 20 of 1861, and acting under the provisions of the said Act, heretofore borrowed and took up from a certain company or copartnership, trading as bankers in Graham's Town under the style or title of the Frontier Commercial and Agricultural Bank, the sum of six thousand pounds sterling, which sum was borrowed and taken up for the completion of a certain reservoir and other works necessary for supplying water to the inhabitants of the said municipality, and which sum was applied to such purpose: And whereas there now remains due and owing to the said bank, upon or in regard to the said loan, a balance or sum of five thousand pounds sterling: And whereas it has become necessary that the said balance or sum now due to the said bank should be paid off and discharged, and that for the raising or obtaining of the necessary money the council to be elected under the provisions of this Act should be authorized and empowered to mortgage landed property by this Act vested in the corporation created by this Act: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

XLIX. It shall be lawful for the council of the municipality created by this Act, and the said council is hereby empowered, to borrow or take up from any person or persons, or company, such sum, not exceeding five thousand pounds sterling, as shall be necessary for paying off or discharging the balance or sum now due as aforesaid to the bank aforesaid, and, for the purpose of securing the principal and interest of the sum so borrowed, to mortgage to the person, persons, or company lending the same so much of the landed property vested in the corporation created by this Act as shall be necessary and be agreed upon: Provided that the person, persons, or company lending the said sum shall not be bound to see to the application by the council of the sum so lent, nor shall the mortgage granted by the said council for securing the principal and interest of such sum be impeached or questioned upon the ground of any irregularity which may be alleged to have been committed in regard to the borrowing from the bank aforesaid the sum which the council is by this section empowered to borrow money to discharge.

L. The council may lease any portion of the lands belonging to the municipality, or any buildings already erected thereon, for a period not exceeding twenty-one years: Provided that such leases shall be put up to public competition, after public notice of not less than fourteen days, and that they shall contain a power to re-enter for non-payment of rent or non-performance of covenants.

LI. The council may by public sale or tender, after public notice, from time to time, lease the privilege of working any mines or quarries belonging to the municipality, for any term not exceeding five years.

LII. No lessee of any such lands, buildings, mines, or quarries as aforesaid shall assign or sublet the same without the previous consent, in writing, of the council; and any assignment or subletting, without such consent, shall, as against the council, be null and void.

LIII. In case the said council shall require to take or use any land with or without the buildings, if any, erected thereon, for the purpose of making, widening, or improving any street, market, or public building; or, for such purpose, to dig out or carry away any materials belonging to any person within the said municipality; or, for the purpose of supplying the said city with water, to appropriate or make use of any springs, streams, or other supplies of water within the said municipality belonging to any person who shall not be bound by law to allow the council so to do, then and in that case it shall be lawful for the said council, and it is hereby authorized and empowered, to treat and agree with every such person for the purchase or hire, as the case may be, of any such land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water as aforesaid, or for the payment of consequential damages, and generally to enter into such contract or contracts relative to the obtaining of any such land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water, upon such terms and conditions as the said council shall judge expedient. And in case any such person and the said council shall not agree upon the purchase money, hire, or recompense to be respectively given by the one party and accepted by the other, then the said council shall cause to be served upon such person a written notice offering as recompense or compensation whatever sum of money it shall deem sufficient, and requiring such person to state, in writing, to the said council, or to some person by it appointed, within a certain time to be specified in the said notice, not being less than fourteen days from the service of the said notice, whether he is willing to accept the sum therein mentioned or not; and in case the person shall refuse to accept the sum offered, or shall neglect to reply to the said notice, the said council shall, by another notice in writing, call upon such person to refer to arbitration the amount of recompense or compensation to be paid to him by the said council, and for that purpose to transmit to the said council within a certain reasonable time, to be specified in the said lastmentioned notice, the name of some person whom he shall select to be an arbitrator upon such arbitration; and the said council, upon receiving the name of the person so selected, shall nominate a second arbitrator, and shall cause a deed of submission to be prepared, which shall be signed, on behalf of the said municipality, by the town clerk for the time being, and by the person claiming such recompense or compensation as aforesaid, and which shall clearly set forth the matter to be determined by the said arbitrators, together with a power to the said arbitrators before commencing such arbitration to appoint an umpire, and their or his decision shall be final; and the award of such arbitrators or umpire, as the case may be, shall be made a rule of the Supreme Court, Eastern Districts Court, or any circuit court of this Colony, and shall be binding and conclusive, and may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding at law brought for or on account of the same subject matter. And in case such person as aforesaid claiming such recompense or compensation shall neglect or refuse to name some person to be such arbitrator as aforesaid, or to sign the said deed of submission, it shall be lawful for the said council, and it is hereby authorized, to lodge in some joint-stock bank in the Eastern Province of this Colony the sum of money offered by it, as aforesaid, in its first notice in this section mentioned, for or on account and at the risk of such person aforesaid, who shall at all times be entitled to draw the same out of the said bank as his absolute property; and the said council, upon so lodging the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take or use the said land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water in question, as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, or had been an order by the arbitrators or umpire under the provisions of this section; and as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said council a sufficient title to the use of or property in the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water aforesaid had been duly done and performed.

LIV. In case the said council shall, for any purpose in the last foregoing section in that behalf mentioned, require to take or use any of the land, with or without the buildings, if any, erected thereon, or to dig or carry away any of the materials, or to appropriate or make use of any springs, streams, or other supplies of water in the last preceding section mentioned, of which the owner shall be absent from the Colony, and not represented therein by any agent duly accredited, or shall not be discoverable, it shall be lawful for the said council, and it is hereby authorized, to cause a notice to be inserted in the Government Gazette and one or more local papers for four successive months, describing, as accurately as may be, the materials, land, buildings, springs, streams, or other supplies of water which are required to be taken or used, and calling by name on the owner of the said land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water, if known, or, if not known, then upon the owner, whoever he may be, to take notice that the said council is ready and willing to treat with the owner, or any person duly authorized by him, for the recompense or compensation to be made or paid by the said council for the said land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water, and requiring such owner to apply within six months from the date of such notice, which shall be the day of its first publication, to the said council, stating the recompense or compensation claimed and if the owner shall so apply within the said period, then the like proceedings in regard to the agreeing for or otherwise determining the recompense or compensation to be respectively given and received shall in all respects be had and taken, which are prescribed in the last preceding section, precisely as if the said owner or owners had from the first been in actual occupation. And in case such owner shall not apply to the said council within the said period, then it shall be lawful for the said council to appoint some competent person, to be approved of by the civil commissioner of the division, to appraise the value of the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water required, and such person shall make oath before any justice of the peace that he hath to the best of his judgment fairly appraised such value; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the said council to pay whatever sum such person shall have valued the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water in question at, into the Guardians' Fund, to the credit of the party or parties entitled thereto, subject to the same provisions in all respects which are provided by the Ordinance No. 105, bearing date the 5th July, 1833, in regard to moneys placed in the said fund belonging to the persons absent from the Colony; and the said council, upon so paying the said sum, shall be authorized and entitled to take or use the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water in question, as freely as if the said sum had been agreed upon between the parties as the sum to be paid, and as if all acts by law required for vesting in the said council sufficient title to the use of or property in the land, buildings, materials, springs, streams, or other supplies of water aforesaid had been duly done and performed.

LV. All acts, matters [illegible]

LVIII. At every meeting of council, the mayor, if present, shall preside: and in case of his absence, the councillors present shall elect a chairman from among themselves.

LIX. In all cases of equality of votes, the mayor, or chairman, as the case may be, shall have a second or casting vote.

LX. Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of the council shall be regularly entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be read at the next succeeding meeting, and signed by the person presiding thereat.

LXIV. All such streetkeepers and policemen shall act as constables while in the execution of their duties under this Act, and are hereby invested with and shall have and enjoy the like powers and authorities, privileges, and immunities, and shall be subjected to such and the like penalties and forfeitures, as constables are invested with or shall or may have or enjoy or are or may be subject or liable to by law.

LXV. For the purpose of raising the means for making new roads, streets, market-places, bridges, drains, sewers, watercourses, reservoirs, aqueducts, and other waterworks; for the purchase of such lands or erection of such buildings as may be required in or about the execution of the powers hereby given to the council; for the purchase of water-pipes, fire-engines, and appurtenances; for the effecting of all other permanent public works and improvements within the municipality; for the purpose of raising the means for effecting the repairs of all such works as the council is hereby empowered to make or to have made for the maintaining of waterworks, fire-engines, police establishments, markets and pounds, for the payment of salaries and all other ordinary current expenses required to be borne by the municipality, the council shall have the power to impose, levy, and recover all such market dues, water-rates, and pound-fees, as shall be deemed necessary and reasonable, and shall be authorized by any such municipal regulations as aforesaid; and shall also have the power, as often as shall be deemed necessary, to make and levy, in manner hereinafter provided, a rate and assessment upon all immovable property within the municipality, the value of which to be ascertained in the manner hereinafter provided: Provided that no rate shall be made or levied by the council unless there shall be present at the meeting at which such rate shall be imposed at least sixteen members of the said council; and provided, also, that no rate or assessment shall be imposed upon any immovable property belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, nor on public prisons or police-stations, alms-houses or hospitals, nor on any buildings appropriated to public worship, nor upon burial-grounds, nor upon buildings or lands attached thereto solely appropriated to the purposes of education.

LXVI. No market dues shall be levied on any person not using the public market, nor shall any compulsion be used to induce any person to use such public market; and no water-rates shall be imposed or levied on any person not supplied with the water provided by the municipality.

LXVII. All persons owning or occupying property within the limits of the municipality, excepting such property as is hereinbefore exempted, shall be liable to be rated on account of such property to the city rate in such manner and to such extent as is hereinafter provided: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to authorize the assessment of a rate both upon the owner and the occupier of any one property in respect of such property.

LXVIII. Within three months after the passing of this Act the council shall appoint one or more competent appraisers, not being members of such council, for the purpose of valuing all and singular the immovable property situate within the municipality.

LXIX. As soon as any valuation as aforesaid shall be completed it shall lie in the office of the town clerk for the inspection of every owner or occupier of any property included therein who may, upon all lawful days, and at all reasonable times, inspect the same, and take extracts therefrom; and the council shall, by public notice, announce for general information that it will, upon some day and at some hour and place to be fixed in such notice, hold a court for the purpose of hearing and determining objections to such valuation: Provided that such notice shall be published fourteen days at least before the day appointed therein for the holding of such court: Provided, also, that it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any rate, to prove anything further in the nature of due notice of any such valuation as aforesaid than the publication of the notice aforesaid in one or more of the local newspapers.

LXX. LXXIII. Every rate so assessed as aforesaid shall become due and payable upon a certain day, to be fixed by the council, of which day and the amount of which rate the said council shall give at least fourteen days' notice in one of the local newspapers: Provided that it shall not be necessary, in any suit or proceeding for the recovery of any such rate, to prove anything further as to due notice having been given than the publication of the announcement thereof in one of the newspapers aforesaid.

LXXIV. When the council shall have announced in one of the local papers the day on which any rate duly assessed under this Act will become due and payable, it shall be incumbent upon all persons liable to such rate to pay the amount thereof so due to any person whom the council may have authorized to receive the same, on or before the day fixed in the said announcement for the payment of the same, on pain of being forthwith liable to legal proceedings, at the suit of the town clerk, for the recovery of the amount: Provided, also, that any occupier who shall have paid any such rate shall be entitled to recover the same from the owner, unless there be any agreement to the contrary.

LXXV. The council may, in suing for the recovery of rates, proceed against the owner, or in case of his absence from the Colony, his agent or the person receiving the rents for him, or the occupier, either separately or both of them, in one and the same action, each for the whole rate, in any competent court, and recover the same by the judgment and process of such court: Provided that no occupier of any immovable property shall be liable for any rate which had become due and payable thereon at any time before he entered on the occupation thereof; and provided, further, that any person who, as occupier may have become liable for any rate as aforesaid shall continue to be liable for such rate, although he may have ceased to occupy the property in respect of which the rate had been imposed.

LXXVI. The council shall, once in every year, publish in one or more of the local newspapers a statement of every sum in arrear, and of the property in respect of which the same is due.

of which term, and of each successive term of three years, a fresh valuation shall be made, in the same manner as is hereinbefore directed with regard to the first valuation.

LXXVIII. In case any new building shall be erected during any such period of five years, or in case of any addition to, or alteration of, any building then already rated, increasing the value thereof, the council shall proceed to have the land and such building thereon valued or re-valued, as the case may be, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided with regard to the first valuation; and after such valuation is completed the property so valued or re-valued shall be in the same plight and condition as to future rates as if it had been included in the first or then preceding general valuation.

LXXIX. Instead of the mode aforesaid of ascertaining the value of property within the said municipality to be rated as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the council, by resolution, to adopt the valuation of such property subsisting and in force for the time being made for road purposes by or under the direction of the divisional council of Albany; and such valuation shall thereupon become and be the valuation for the purposes of this Act, just as if it had been made by appraisers appointed by the council as aforesaid.

LXXX. It shall be lawful for the council, by any municipal regulation as aforesaid, to impose such toll or dues as may be reasonable on all persons making use of any road, bridge, or market-place within the municipality, which the council is hereby empowered to make or maintain, and in case of the non-payment of such tolls or dues, to recover the same by legal process, or in such manner as may by the municipal regulations be in that behalf provided.

LXXXI. No toll shall be payable by any officer or soldier or member of any volunteer corps, being in proper staff or regimental or military uniform, dress or undress, and on duty, or by any judicial or civil officer, mail-carrier, or other Government servant whilst travelling on public duty; and further that no more than one toll shall be payable in any one day, to be computed from twelve o'clock in one night to twelve o'clock in the next succeeding night, for or in respect of the same vehicle or animal.

LXXXII. The treasurer of the said municipality shall, in books to be kept for that purpose, enter true accounts of all sums of money by him received and paid, and of the several matters in respect whereof such sums shall have been received and paid. All such accounts, with all vouchers and papers relating thereto, together with a full abstract or balance-sheet thereof, shall yearly, at such times as the council shall appoint, be handed by him to the auditors, and to such members of the council as the mayor shall name, for the purpose of being examined and audited: and such abstract or balance-sheet, when found correct, shall be signed by the auditors, and shall be forthwith published by the treasurer in one or more of the local newspapers.

LXXXIII. Every notice calling a public meeting of the citizens, and any notice or other document or thing required by this Act to be published, shall, except when otherwise provided, be so published by causing a copy thereof to be inserted in one or more of the local newspapers, and a copy of the same shall also be affixed in some conspicuous place upon or near the municipal office: Provided, always, that the mayor shall call a meeting on receiving a requisition signed by not less than thirty duly qualified ratepayers.

LXXXIV. All fines or penalties imposed by this Act, or by any municipal regulations made by virtue thereof, or now in force, shall be sued for by civil process in any competent court by the council, by the name of "The Council of the City of Graham's Town," and shall, when recovered, be paid to the treasurer of the municipality for municipal purposes: Provided that no such suit as aforesaid shall be commenced later than three months from and after the date of the act or omission complained of.

LXXXV. The storing of gunpowder or other explosive or inflammable material shall not be permitted, except by Her Majesty's Government for public purposes in such places as may be approved by Her Majesty's officers, or by other persons in such places as may be approved of and licensed by the town council for that purpose.

LXXXVI. So soon as any burial-ground or portion thereof shall become so crowded as to be, in the opinion of two thirds of the council, dangerous to the public health, the council shall be empowered to give six months' notice that burials therein shall cease; and after the expiration of the said term of six months any person causing any interment to be made therein shall be liable to pay a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, to be recovered in any competent court.

LXXXVII. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Graham's Town Municipality Act, 1869."

Her Majesty's Commissioners desire me to point out that these Exhibitions will be on a comparatively limited scale, that the objects sent from each Colony will not be arranged together as heretofore, but in their proper classes, and that it is desired that Manufacturers should exhibit only a single specimen of each object.

Her Majesty's Commissioners will be prepared to receive Colonial objects for exhibitions under the following special regulations, viz.:

(1.) Every object which can be exhibited on a vertical surface, or wall space, will be accepted, if accompanied by a certificate from the Government of the Colony where it was produced, that such object is considered worthy of exhibition.

(2.) Every producer desiring to exhibit an object which will require for its exhibition superficial or floor space, must forward to Her Majesty's Commissioners, before a date to be hereafter appointed, a working drawing or photograph of such object, with accurate dimensions and descriptive particulars, on receipt of which, Her Majesty's Commissioners will, if the object be considered worthy of exhibition, transmit direct to the producer a certificate of the acceptance of such object, thereby guaranteeing its admission.

(3.) Any producer may, at his option, instead of conforming with either of the foregoing regulations, send any object direct to the Exhibition Building for the inspection and approval of the judges selected for the other British Exhibitors, and under the same regulations as shall be prescribed with reference to other British Goods, so submitted for inspection.

Further particulars having reference to the specialities of each Colony will hereafter be sent.

6th. That as often as in any Electoral Division a Poll shall be demanded and shall take place, the Returning Officer shall appoint for the taking of the Poll for the election of the Members of the House of Assembly the same Polling Places in such Division as were fixed by my Proclamation No. 7, of the 11th January, 1869, for taking the Poll for the election of Members of the Legislative Council in that Division.

7th. Caledon, 23rd October, 1869.

In the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith.

To the Sheriff of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or his lawful Deputy, Greeting:

WHEREAS, upon the Petition to the Honourable the Circuit Court of the Division of Graaff-Reinet, together with the Divisions of Richmond, Murraysburg, Victoria West, and Fraserburg, of SKELTON EDWARDS WIMBLE, EDWARD NATHAN, and DAVID CAREL SCHULTZ, of Graaff-Reinet, in their capacity as the Trustees for the time being of the Midland Fire Assurance and Trust Company (Limited), against CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN, lately residing at Aberdeen, in the Division of Graaff-Reinet, it appears to us that the said CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN is justly and truly indebted to the said SKELTON EDWARDS WIMBLE, EDWARD NATHAN, and DAVID CAREL SCHULTZ, in their said capacity aforesaid, in the sum of One Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds Sterling, together with the interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, calculated from the 31st day of December, 1866, upon and by virtue of a certain Mortgage Bond dated the 4th day of November, 1864, passed and executed by one PAUL JOHANNES ROUX, PAUL'S son, in his capacity as the duly authorized Agent of the said CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN, in favour of SAMUEL ALFRED PROBART, JOHAN LODEWYK LIEB, and MARTIN LILIENFELD, in their capacity as the Trustees to the said Midland Fire Assurance and Trust Company (Limited), or to the Trustees of the said Company for the time being, and that the said SKELTON EDWARDS WIMBLE, EDWARD NATHAN, and DAVID CAREL SCHULTZ are at present the Trustees of the said Midland Fire Assurance and Trust Company (Limited);

And whereas it further appears of record, that the said CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN departed from his dwelling-house, situated at Aberdeen aforesaid, about two years ago, or otherwise is absenting himself therefrom, with intent to defeat or delay his Creditors in obtaining payment of their Debts, and has thereby committed an act of Insolvency;

And whereas it further appears of record, that the Trustees of the said Company have not received any security for their said Debt, or any part thereof, save and except the Property specially hypothecated by the said Mortgage Bond, and that the said Property would not realize the sum of seventy-five pounds sterling, at which amount the said security is valued, and no more, which, including interest, would leave a balance of seventy-seven pounds and ten shillings sterling, after the realization of the said security, still due and owing to the said Trustees for the time being of the said Company;

And whereas it further appears to us of record, that by order of the said Circuit Court it is ordered that the Estate of the said CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN be placed under Sequestration, provisionally, as Insolvent, into the hands of the Master of the Supreme Court of this Colony, to be dealt with as by law in that behalf provided, and that this order shall be returnable on the 7th day December, 1869, in the Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope; and that the same shall be advertised in the Government Gazette of this Colony and in both the local papers at Graaff-Reinet, and also to be affixed to the door of the dwelling-house of the Insolvent at Aberdeen, and to the door of the Court-room at Graaff-Reinet:

Now, therefore, we command you that you summon the said CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN, that he be and appear before our Justices of our said Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, at Graham's Town, on Tuesday, the 7th day of December, 1869, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if he hath any, why his Estate should not, by sentence of this Honourable Court, be adjudged to be sequestrated as Insolvent for the benefit of his Creditors; and return you then there this Summons with whatsoever you have done thereupon.

Witness: The Honourable EDWARD DWYER, Esq., Senior Judge of our said Court of the Eastern Districts of the Cape of Good Hope, at Graham's Town, this 16th day of October, 1869.

JOHN J. GRAHAM, Acting Registrar of the Court of the Eastern Districts.

UPON reading the Petition of the above Parties and the Affidavit of HARRY BOLUS, and after hearing Mr. Advocate BARRY on behalf of the Petitioners, it is ordered that the Estate of the said CAREL JACOBUS VAN HEERDEN be placed under Sequestration, provisionally, as Insolvent, into the hands of the Master of the Supreme Court, at this Colony, to be dealt with as by law in that behalf provided, and that this order shall be returnable on the 7th of December, 1869; and that the same shall be advertised in the Government Gazette of this Colony, and in both the local papers at Graaff-Reinet; and also to be affixed to the door of the Dwelling-house of the Insolvent at Aberdeen, and to the door of the Court-room at Graaff-Reinet.

No. 4,170.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY, Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14 Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow full time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may be cases, however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polltng officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

No. 4,171.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14 Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow full time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship for the purpose of additional publicity.

n the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning ave received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the es for each candidate.

final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a ing proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have . At this court he will state the number of votes given for each And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial e names of the members elected, and the number of votes he respective candidates.

NCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of ie simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, ers of Council.

polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper g separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he lling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite proper column, for whom he votes.

pt in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter es, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape ter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every hould he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

he electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, s entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one r divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters word of mouth, and not by lists.

voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place al division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, fficer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 309, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
28 October, 1869.

DE volgende instruktien worden gepubliceerd tot rigtsnoer voor de Beambten van Stemopneming bij de aanstaande Verkiezing van Leden der Wetgevende Vergadering van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

Instruktien ten dienste van Beambten van Stemopneming.

1. Men moet in gedachte houden, dat de Kiesgeregtigden, wanneer zij stemmen voor Leden van de Wetgevende Vergadering, alleen mogen stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van ingevulde of geteekende lijsten, even als voor Leden van den Raad.

2. De Beambte van Stemopneming zal zorg dragen voorzien te zijn van boeken met flaauw geliniëerd papier, met afzonderlijke kolommen voor de verschillende kandidaten met de namen van dezen aan het hoofd; en wanneer de kiezer de namen van den kandidaat of van de kandidaten noemt, voor welke hij stemt, zal de Beambte van Stemopneming den naam des kiezers opschrijven, en daartegenover in de behoorlijke kolom aanteekenen voor wien hij stemt.

3. Behalve in de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, alwaar ieder kiezer vier stemmen heeft, heeft iedere kiezer twee stemmen en niet meer. En behalve in Kaapstad, kan geen kiezer aan eenigen kandidaat meer dan eene stem geven. Maar iedere kiezer mag, als hij zulks dienstig acht, stemmen enkel voor één kandidaat.

4. In de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, die vier leden afvaardigt, heeft iedere kiezer het regt om vier stemmen uit te brengen, en hij mag al zijne stemmen geven aan een Kandidaat of wel zijne stemmen gelijkelijk of ongelijk verdeelen over zoovele der Kandidaten als hij geschikt oordeelt. Maar in Kaapstad, even als in de andere kiesafdeelingen, zal de kiezer moeten stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van lijsten.

5. Geen der kiezers is verpligt, enkel in zijne eigene wijk te stemmen. Elke Stemplaats in eene kiesafdeeling is open voor iederen kiezer van die kiesafdeeling.

6. Het wordt er voor gehouden, dat in elk geval, waarin een kiezer komt stemmen aan eene Stemplaats buiten zijne eigene wijk, en misschien in vele andere gevallen evenzoo, dat de Beambte van Stemopneming wel zal handelen met de volgende vraag te doen, waartoe in hare bewoordingen de Wet magtiging verleent: "Hebt gij reeds gestemd, hetzij hier of elders, in deze kiesafdeeling, voor eenigerlei Lid van de Wetgevende Vergadering?" Men moet voor oogen houden, dat ieder die opzettelijk een valsch antwoord op die vraag geeft strafbaar is met gevangenzetting met of zonder dwangarbeid voor een tijdvak van twee jaren.

7. Geen Beambte van Stemopneming beboort, onder welke omstandigheden ook, eene stem aan te nemen voor iemand, die niet is voorgesteld en gesekondeerd als kandidaat.

8. De Beambten van Stemopneming zullen zorgvuldig toezien, geene stem aan te nemen van iemand, die niet geregistreerd is. Maar iemand, wiens identiteit onbetwistbaar is, en die buiten twijfel de persoon is, die meende naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn en die verondersteld werd naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn, zou ten slotte toch niet akkuraat geregistreerd kunnen wesen, De Beambten van Stemopneming moet zich in al zulke gevallen rigten naar het beginsel, opgesloten liggende in de laatste Clausule van Artikel 41 der Constitutie Ordonnantie. Hij moet op twee punten zijne aandacht vestigen. Hij moet eerst overtuigd zijn, dat de persoon, die voor hem verschijnt om te stemmen, dezelfde persoon is, in het register bedoeld. Indien de naam, door den kiezer opgegeven, precies dezelfde naam is, als die op de registratie lijst in handen van den beambte van stemopneming,—en indien nergens uit blijkt, dat er een ander persoon van dienzelfden naam bestaat, die met de registratie bedoeld wordt, dan kan er geene moeijelijkheid bestaan. Maar indien de persoon die voor den beambte van stemopneming verschijnt, om te stemmen, meer vóórnamen of minder vóórnamen of andere vóórnamen opgeeft, dan die op de registratie lijst staan aangeteekend, ontstaat er moeijelijkheid. Indien evenwel de identiteit bevestigd is, zal het onderscheid in de vóórnamen den kiezer niet van zijn stemregt berooven. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers zou b.v. kunnen voorkomen om te stemmen, terwijl misschien zoodanig naam niet op de registratie lijst staat. Maar indien Paulus Johannes de Villiers op de lijst voorkomt, en het duidelijk mogt worden gemaakt, dat die verkeerde namen voor den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers bedoeld waren, dan zal het den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, geoorloofd zijn te stemmen. Ook zal geene vergissing in het spellen, zelfs van den geslagtsnaam, den kiezer van zijn stemregt berooven, ingeval de identiteit ven den persoon is uitgemaakt. De geslachtsnaam, evenwel, van den persoon, die komt om te stemmen, moet of dezelfde klank hebben als de naam aan hem gegeven op de registratielijst, of de eene naam moet eene verbastering van den anderen zijn. Geene getuigenis omtrent den persoon, hoe sterk ook, zou kunnen worden aangenomen om te doen blijken, dat Thompson, die komt om te stemmen, geregistreerd was als Smith. Dit is niet enkel eene fout in de spelling van den geslachtsnaam, maar het is eene gantsch andere geslachtsnaam. Maar Thompson zou kunnen geregistreerd zijn als Thomsen, want dit is louter eene verg asing in de spelling, en de namen Visser en Fisher, Laubser en Lobser, de Villiers en Viljee, Haupt en Hoef, zijn voorbeelden van eene soort van verbasteringen, die men wel in aanmerking moet nemen. Maar telkens wanneer een kiezer een naam opgeeft, die op eenigerlei wijze verschilt van den geregistreerden naam, zal de beambte van stemopneming, bij het schrijven van den naam in het Stemboek, dien naam aanteekenen, zoo als die geregistreerd is, zoodat de toelating tot het stemmen zal kunnen worden verklaard.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 306, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
26 October, 1869.

NAAR voorschrift van Wet No. 19 van 1864, wordt hierbij tot algemeen narigt bekend gemaakt, dat op Maandag, den 29sten November, 1869, des voormiddags ten 10 ure, de volgende stukken Kroonland, gelegen in de Afdeeling Swellendam, in front van het Kantoor van den Civielen Commissaris in Pacht zullen worden opgeveild onder de voorwaarden en bepalingen in bovengemelde Wet en in den Pachtvorm omschreven, en voorts onder zoodanige verdere voorwaarden als op den dag der Verpachting zullen worden bekend gemaakt.

Ingeval de aangeboden pacht onvoldoende wordt geacht om een kontrakt voor het land voor den bedoelden termijn van jaren toe te staan, behoudt het Gouvernement aan zich het regt om dien termijn te bekorten tot een tijd van niet minder dan één jaar.

No. 4,172.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division. Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14 Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow full time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to ien the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the otes for each candidate.

e final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a king proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have d. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial he names of the members elected, and the number of votes he respective candidates.

UCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of ote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, ers of Council.

polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper g separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he lling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite proper column, for whom he votes.

pt in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter es, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape oter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every hould he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

he electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one r divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters word of mouth, and not by lists.

voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place al division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

AANGEZIEN geene bevredigende Tenders zijn ingekomen voor het leveren van vleesch aan het Somerset Hospitaal en het Gesticht op Robbeneiland gedurende het nu aanstaande jaar, zoo heeft Zijne Excellentie de Gouverneur gelast, nieuwe Tenders aan te vragen voor de algemeene levering van Rundvleesch, per 100 lb., aan het Ziekenhuis op Robbeneiland, het Somerset Hospitaal, het Dwangarbeiders-station aan den Zeebreker, en de Gevangenis en het Verbeterhuis te Kaapstad, en voor het leveren van Schapenvleesch, per 100 lbs. aan het Somerset Hospitaal, het Dwangarbeiders-station aan den Zeebreker, en de Gevangenis en het Verbeterhuis te Kaapstad, van af den 1sten Januarij tot den 31sten December, 1870.

Voor de bovengenoemde leverantien zullen Tenders worden ingewacht aan het Auditeurskantoor te Kaapstad tot Zaturdag, den 6den November, 1869, 's middags ten 12 ure.

Hakken scheven, en nekken van Rund- of Schapenvleesch zullen niet als gedeelten der liverantie worden aangenomen, behalve voor het Dwangarbeiders-station aan den Zeebreker.

De thans van kracht zijnde voorwaarden betreffende het leveren van vleesch aan de verschillende Etablissementen, zullen ook in het geval moeten worden opgevolgd en zijn op aanvrage te vernemen bij de respective hoofden der Etablissementen.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 309, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
28 October, 1869.

DE volgende instruktien worden gepubliceerd tot rigtsnoer voor de Beambten van Stemopneming bij de aanstaande Verkiezing van Leden der Wetgevende Vergadering van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

Instruktien ten dienste van Beambten van Stemopneming.

1. Men moet in gedachte houden, dat de Kiesgeregtigden, wanneer zij stemmen voor Leden van de Wetgevende Vergadering, alleen mogen stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van ingevulde of geteekende lijsten, even als voor Leden van den Raad.

2. De Beambte van Stemopneming zal zorg dragen voorzien te zijn van boeken met flaauw geliniëerd papier, met afzonderlijke kolommen voor de verschillende kandidaten met de namen van dezen aan het hoofd; en wanneer de kiezer de namen van den kandidaat of van de kandidaten noemt, voor welke hij stemt, zal de Beambte van Stemopneming den naam des kiezers opschrijven, en daartegenover in de behoorlijke kolom aanteekenen voor wien hij stemt.

3. Behalve in de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, alwaar ieder kiezer vier stemmen heeft heeft iedere kiezer twee stemmen en niet meer. In behalve in Kaapstad, kan geen kiezer aan eenigen kandidaat meer dan eene stem geven. Maar iedere kiezer mag, als hij zulks dienstig acht, stemmen enkel voor éénen kandidaat.

4. In de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, die vier leden afvaardigt, heeft iedere kiezer het regt om vier stemmen uit te brengen, en hij mag al zijne stemmen geven aan een Kandidaat of wel zijne stemmen gelijkelijk of ongelijk verdeelen over toovele der Kandidaten als hij geschikt oordeelt. Maar in Kaapstad, even als in de andere kiesafdeelingen, zal de kiezer moeten stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van lijsten.

5. Geen der kiezers is verpligt, enkel in zijne eigene wijk te stemmen. Elke Stemplaats in eene kiesafdeeling is open voor iedereen kiezer van die kiesafdeeling.

6. Het wordt er voor gehouden, dat in elk geval, waarin een kiezer komt stemmen aan eene Stemplaats buiten zijne eigene wijk, en misschien in vele andere gevallen evenzoo, dat de Beambte van Stemopneming wel zal handelen met de volgende vraag te doen, waartoe in hare bewoordingen de Wet magtiging verleent: "Heb gij reeds gestemd, hetzij hier of elders, in deze kiesafdeeling, voor eenigerlei Lid van de Wetgevende Vergadering?" Men moet voor oogen houden, dat ieder die opzettelijk een valsch antwoord op die vraag geeft strafbaar is met gevangenzetting met of zonder dwangarbeid voor een tijdvak van twee jaren.

7. Geen Beambte van Stemopneming beboort, onder welke omstandigheden ook, eene stem aan te nemen voor iemand, die niet is voorgesteld en gesekondeerd als kandidaat.

8. De Beambten van Stemopneming zullen zorgvuldig toezien, geene stem aan te nemen van iemand, die niet geregistreerd is. Maar iemand, wiens identiteit onbetwistbaar is, en die buiten twijfel de persoon is, die meende naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn en die verondersteld werd naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn, zou ten slotte toch niet akkuraat geregistreerd kunnen wezen. De Beambten van Stemopneming moet zich in al zulke gevallen rigten naar het beginsel, opgesloten liggende in de laatste Clausule van Artikel 41 der Constitutie Ordonnantie. Hij moet op twee punten zijne aandacht vestigen. Hij moet eers overtuigd zijn, dat de persoon, die voor hem verschijnt om te stemmen, dezelfde persoon is, in het register bedoeld. Indien de naam, door den kiezer opgegeven, precies dezelfde naam is, als die op de registratie lijst in handen van den beambte van stemopneming, en indien nergens uit blijkt, dat er een ander persoon van dienzelfden naam bestaat, die met de registratie bedoeld wordt dan kan er geene moeijelijkheid bestaan. Maar indien de persoon die voor den beambte van stemopneming verschijnt, om te stemmen, meer vóórnamen of minder vóórnamen of andere vóórnamen opgeeft, dan die op de registratie lijst staan aangeteekend, ontstaat er moeijelijkheid. Indien evenwel de identiteit bevestigd is, zal het onderscheid in de vóórnamen den kiezer niet van zijn stemregt berooven. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers zou b.v. kunnen voorkomen om te stemmen, terwijl misschien zoodanig naam niet op de registratie lijst staat. Maar indien Paulus Johannes de Villiers op de lijst voorkomt, en het duidelijk mogt worden gemaakt, dat die verkeerde naam voor den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers bedoeld waren, dan zal het den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, geoorloofd zijn te stemmen. Ook zal geene vergissing in het spellen, zelfs van den geslagtsnaam, den kiezer van zijn stemregt berooven, ingeval de identiteit van den persoon is uitgemaakt. De geslachtsnaam, evenwel, van den persoon, die komt om te stemmen, moet of dezelfde klank hebben als de naam aan hem gegeven op de registratielijst, of de eene naam moet eene verbastering van den anderen zijn. Geene getuigenis omtrent den persoon, hoe sterk ook, zou kunnen worden aangenomen om te doen blijken, dat Thompson, die komt om te stemmen, geregistreerd was als Smith. Dit is niet enkel eene fout in de spelling van den geslachtsnaam, maar het is eene ganisch andere geslachtsnaam. Maar Thompson zou kunnen geregistreerd zijn als Thomson, want dit is louter eene vergissing in de spelling, en de namen Visser en Fisher, Laubser en Lobser, de Villiers en Viljoe, Haupt en Hoof, zijn voorbeelden van eene soort van verbeteringen, die men wel in aanmerking moet nemen. Maar telkens wanneer een kiezer een naam opgeeft, die op eenigerlei wijze verschilt van den geregistreerden naam, zal de beambte van stemopneming, bij het schrijven van den naam in het Stembook, dien naam aanteekenen, zoo als die geregistreerd is, zoodat de toelating tot het stemmen zal kunnen worden verklaard.

No. 4,173.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14 Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow full time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place pen to every voter of that electoral division.

at in every case in which any voter comes to vote is own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

This Company having a Revenue from Premiums alone of One Hundred and Forty Thousand Pounds per Annum, is in a position to transact every description of LIFE ASSURANCE on as favourable terms as any other Company of equal standing.

Holders of Life Policies on the profit scale, who may hereafter fill confidential situations and require to be guaranteed, may secure considerable reductions in their life premiums, by making their life policies contingent on the continuance of fidelity.

Three fourths of the Profits are divisible amongst the Policy-holders on the "Profit Scale of Premiums," affording the advantages of Mutual Assurance, with the further security of a large subscribed capital, the prudent employment of which gives a greater ratio of increase to business and to profits than a purely Mutual Society can achieve.

Assurances are granted for £10,000 on a single life

Premiums may be paid in one sum, or yearly, or by half-yearly, or quarterly instalments.

Policies upon which five years' payments have been made, are purchased by the Society or the Policy-holders, if unable to continue paying, may receive cash Policies in exchange (on which no further payment is required), equivalent to the then value of the Premiums already paid.

On Policies amounting to £200 and upwards for the whole of life, one-half of the Premium may remain unpaid at Interest for five years.

No extra Premium charged for voyage to and residence in any part of Europe, New Zealand, Australia (except at the "Diggings,") the Cape Colony, or British America.

This is the only Society transacting Life Assurance with Fidelity Guarantee, whose Policies of Guarantee are authorized (by Special Act of Parliament) to be accepted by Government.

The Guarantee Policies of this Society are accepted by the Treasury, Poor Law Board, and other public departments, and by the leading London and Provincial Joint-Stock and Private Banks, the principal Railway Companies, Life and Fire Offices, Public Companies, Institutions, and Commercial Firms throughout the Kingdom

Immediate Annuities payable during the whole of Life may be purchased on the following Scale:

Annuities granted at the undermentioned Agents for every £100 of Purchase Money.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE
Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14 Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow full time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR PHILIP EDMOND WODEHOUSE,

Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c., &c., &c.

7th. That the Polling Officers for taking the Poll in the several Electoral Divisions shall, unless otherwise provided by law, as much as may be, be the same as those appointed by my Proclamation last hereinbefore mentioned to take the Poll in such Divisions, respectively, for Members of the Legislative Council; and the Returning Officer for every Electoral Division in which a Poll shall be taken shall place in the possession of every Polling Officer, other than such Returning Officer himself, a Certificate, under the hand of such Returning Officer, certifying that the Officer named therein has been appointed to take the Poll for Members of Assembly at the Polling Place or Polling Places mentioned in such Certificate.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 336, 1869.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
11th November, 1869.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following Draft of a Bill "To amend the Constitution of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope," which it is his intention to submit for the consideration of Parliament in its next ensuing Session.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

BILL

TO

Amend the Constitution of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope.

WHEREAS, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the 11th day of March, 1853, it was ordered and declared that nothing in the said Order contained should extend to prevent the Parliament of this Colony from making any Act or Acts (subject to Her Majesty's power to disallow the same, with the advice of Her Privy Council, or to assent to the same, if reserved for the signification of her pleasure thereon) in amendment of an Ordinance enacted on the 3rd day of April in the year 1852, intituled "An Ordinance for constituting a Parliament for the said Colony:" And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be amended: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. From and after the taking effect of this Act, so much of the said hereinbefore recited Ordinance of the year 1852, and so much of the Act No. 3 of the year 1865, intituled "An Act to make provision for the Incorporation of British Kaffraria with the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and to increase the number of the Members of both Houses of Parliament of the said Colony," as relates to the representation in Parliament of the divisions formerly composing British Kaffraria, as is not hereby re-enacted or retained in force, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. The Legislature of this Colony shall for the future consist of the Governor and of a Legislative Council.

III. The Legislative Council shall consist of a President to be appointed by Her Majesty, and of thirty-six members, four of whom shall be persons holding offices of profit under Her Majesty, and the remainder shall be elected in manner hereinafter provided.

IV. Eleven members of the said Council shall form a quorum for the dispatch of business. In the absence of the President, the members present shall elect one of their own number to preside. All questions arising in the said Council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present other than the President or the member presiding in his absence. But when the votes shall be equal the President or presiding member shall have the casting vote.

V. It shall be lawful for the Governor, by writing under his hand, from time to time to appoint such four persons holding offices of profit to be members of the said Council as to him shall appear expedient, and in like manner to remove any member so appointed, and to appoint some other person holding an office of profit to be a member in place of the person so removed, or in place of any such member dying, resigning, or becoming incapable of performing the duties of a member of the said Council.

VI. The thirty-two elective members of the said Council shall be elected as follows, that is to say: The City of Cape Town shall return two members, the City of Graham's Town shall return one member, and the electoral divisions of Cape Town (exclusive of the City of Cape Town), Stellenbosch, Paarl, Malmesbury, Namaqualand, Clanwilliam, Beaufort, Victoria West, Caledon, Swellendam, Riversdale, George, Oudtshoorn, Worcester, Port Elizabeth, Uitenhage, Somerset, Graaff-Reinet, Cradock, Colesberg, Richmond, Albany (exclusive of the City of Grahams's Town), Fort Beaufort, Queen's Town, Albert, Aliwal North, Victoria East, King William's Town, and East London shall each return one member; and for the purposes of this Act the division of Piquetberg shall be annexed to and form part of the electoral division of Malmesbury.

VII. The thirty-two elective members shall vacate their seats at the expiration of five years from the date of their first election, and thereafter, at the end of five years from the date of any general election of such members, their seats shall become vacant, and there shall be a new election.

VIII. All persons who by virtue of any provision of the Constitution Ordinance which is now in force, and which is hereby retained in force, or of any other law relating thereto, are entitled to vote at the elections of the Legislative Council and of the House of Assembly as at present constituted, shall be entitled to vote at the elections of members of the Legislative Council hereby created, and all laws now in force for the registration of voters in the several divisions shall continue in force within the same, and all persons who may be hereafter registered in conformity with the same, shall be entitled to vote at all elections to be held under the provisions of this Act.

IX. The qualification for elective members of the Legislative Council to be hereby established shall be that established by the forty-seventh section of the Constitution Ordinance for members of the House of Assembly.

X. It shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time after the taking effect of this Act, to appoint, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, a day for the election of members for the Legislative Council, and by such Proclamation to appoint the returning officer for each electoral division and the polling officers, and fix the several polling places for the same, and the polling shall commence at eight o'clock and finally close at five o'clock on the same day; every such Proclamation shall be published not less than thirty days before the day fixed for polling.

XI. No person shall be deemed a candidate at any election of members of the said Council for any electoral division unless he shall have been invited to become such candidate by a requisition in writing, signed by not less than twenty-five of the persons qualified to vote in the election of a member for the said division, every such signature being accompanied by a full and correct address of the person so signing, and shall have accepted such requisition in writing under his hand, and shall have transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, within the time limited on this behalf, such requisition, with such acceptance thereof, together with an obligation signed by himself and by two sufficient sureties, binding themselves for the payment, in equal proportions with any other candidates who may be proposed for the same electoral division, of the expenses of such election (not exceeding the sum of —— pounds), as the said expenses shall be sanctioned and allowed by the Governor.

XII. No person shall be entitled to sign a requisition to more than one candidate, or to sign more than one requisition in respect of the same election; and if the same person shall sign more than one, his signature shall be expunged from all, and he shall not be capable of signing another for the election in respect of which he shall have so signed.

XIII. The Governor shall, by Proclamation or Proclamations to be published in the Government Gazette not less than ——— days before the day appointed for taking the poll, call upon all candidates to transmit to the Colonial Secretary, on a day to be named in such Proclamation, the requisition, acceptance, and security bond hereinbefore mentioned; and the Governor shall, by Proclamation or Proclamations, to be published in like manner not less than ——— days before the day appointed for taking the poll, declare the names of the candidates for the several electoral divisions who shall have complied with the provisions of this section, who shall thereupon be deemed to be eligible to be elected.

XIV. No person shall be permitted to vote in any electoral division for any member of the said Council, except a person whose name shall be inserted in the list of registered voters for such electoral division.

XV. The returning officer shall, before the day appointed for taking the poll, transmit to the person appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division in which such polling place shall be situate, certified under the hand of the civil commissioner for such division to be correct. And the returning officer shall at the same time transmit to such polling officer the names of the eligible candidates, which shall forthwith be by him fixed up in some conspicuous place at such polling place.

XVI. The list of registered voters in the preceding section mentioned shall for all purposes and in all places be deemed and taken to be conclusive proof of the right to vote of every person registered therein; and no such list shall be opened up, or the right of any voter mentioned therein questioned in any manner or by any proceeding in the Legislative Council.

XVII. No inquiry shall be permitted at the time of polling as to the right of any person to vote, except only as follows: that is to say, that the officer taking the poll shall, if required by or on behalf of any candidate, and of his own motion if it shall appear proper, put to any voter at the time of tendering his vote, and not afterwards, the following questions, or either of them, and none other:

Firstly,—Are, you, to the best of your knowledge and belief, the same person whose name appears as A.B., of ———, on the list of registered voters for the division of ———?

Secondly,—Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this election?

And if any person shall willfully make a false answer to either of such questions, he shall be deemed to be guilty of the crime of contravening this Act, and shall, on conviction, be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding two years.

XVIII. As soon as the time limited for keeping open the poll at any polling place shall have expired, the polling officer shall, with all convenient speed, deliver or securely transmit to the returning officer of the electoral division, a list containing the names of all persons admitted to vote at such polling place, together with the names of the respective persons for whom such voters shall, respectively, have voted.

XIX. When and so soon as the returning officer shall be in possession of all the lists in the preceding section mentioned, he shall cast up and ascertain the number of votes given for each candidate, and shall, after notice affixed, for at least two clear days, to the court-room of the resident magistrate of the district in which such returning officer shall reside, openly declare in such court-room the state of the poll, and make proclamation of the member of the Legislative Council returned. But if in any case such returning officer shall find that by reason of any two or more candidates having received an equal number of votes, he cannot proclaim any one of them to have been duly elected, h shall call upon such candidates to draw lots publicly in his presence, either personally or by their agents duly appointed by writing under their hands, at some time and place to be by him fixed,—and shall thereafter proclaim as duly elected the candidate on whom the lot may fall,—and such returning officer shall then transmit to the Governor the name of the member elected.

XX. As soon as the Governor shall have received from the returning officers throughout the Colony the names of the members elected, he shall publish, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, the names of such members and of the electoral divisions which they respectively represent And the day of the publication of such Proclamation shall, for the purposes of the — section hereof, be deemed and taken to be the date of the election of all the elective members of the Legislative Council.

XXI. The sessions of the Legislative Council shall be held at such time and place as the Governor shall from time to time, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, appoint, and at least once in every year, so that a period of twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting in one session and the first sitting in the next session.

XXII. No member shall be permitted to sit or vote in the Legislative Council until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Governor of the Colony, or before some person or persons authorized by such Governor to administer such oath:

I, A. B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, her Heirs and Successors, according to law.

XXIII. Every person authorized by law to make an affirmation, instead of taking an oath, may make such affirmation in every case in which an oath is hereinbefore required to be taken.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any registered voter to present to the said Council, through the President, a petition alleging in regard to any member that he is not qualified in terms of the ninth section of this Act; and the President shall, at the next sitting thereafter, inform the Council of the receipt and contents of the petition, and if the member do not then admit the truth of the same, the Council shall appoint a time at which, without debate, it will choose a committee of three members for inquiring into the petition; and such committee shall be chosen by writing upon a separate piece of paper the name of each member of the said Council (not being related either to the member whose qualification is in question, or to the petitioner, within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity), which pieces of paper, being all as nearly as may be of equal size, shall be put together in a box to be provided for that purpose, and the Clerk of the Council shall draw out three of the said papers one after another, and the said three members so first drawn shall form the committee, and the said committee shall, with all convenient speed, inquire into the matter of the said petition to them referred, and shall hear what shall be urged on the part of the petitioner and on the part of the member whose qualification shall be questioned, and all the evidence offered by either of them, and shall then report to the Council the result of their inquiry, and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that the member whose qualification shall have been so questioned is duly qualified, the petition shall be dismissed; and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that such member is not duly qualified, then such member shall, upon the bringing up of such report, be deemed and taken to have vacated his seat. No such petition shall be taken into consideration by the Council until the party petitioning shall have given security, to the satisfaction of the President, that he will duly pay and satisfy such sum or sums of money, if any, as he may be lawfully condemned or adjudged to pay under and by virtue of the provisions of the next succeeding section hereof.

XXV. When any petition shall, upon the report of any committee as aforesaid, be dismissed, the party petitioning shall be liable to pay to the member whose qualification shall have been called in question the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, together with and over and above any special damage, charges, or expenses which such member shall prove himself to have sustained from or expended by reasons of the said petition, which sums shall be recovered by action in any competent court, together with costs of suit, unless the defendant shall in his defence succeed in proving, to the satisfaction of the said court, either that such member was not, when such petition was presented, duly qualified, or otherwise that he, the defendant, had, when such petition was presented, reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not so qualified. When the said defendant shall fail in proving that such member was not, at the time aforesaid, duly qualified, but shall succeed in proving that he had reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not duly qualified, such defendant shall still be condemned in the costs of suit. And in case such defendant shall succeed in proving that such member was not at the time aforesaid duly qualified; such defendant shall be entitled to judgment in his favour, with the costs of suit.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any elective member of the Legislative Council, by writing under his hand, addressed to the President, to resign his seat in the said Council, and upon such resignation the seat of such member shall become vacant. And if any such member shall for one whole session of the said Council fail to give his attendance therein, without the permission of the said Council, or shall take any oath or make any declaration of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to any foreign Prince or Power, or shall do, or concur in, or adopt any such act whereby he may become a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power, or if his estate shall be sequestrated as insolvent, the seat of such member shall thereby become vacant.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on receiving from the President, or from any two elective members of the said Council, a certificate under their hands, supported by such evidence as he shall consider sufficient, that any elective seat or seats therein has or have become vacant, by Proclamation, to command, in like manner, mutatis mutandis, as is hereinbefore directed in regard to the first elections under this Act, a new election or new elections for supplying such vacancy or vacancies; and the like proceedings shall, mutatis mutandis, take place in regard to such elections for supplying vacancies as are hereinbefore ordered in regard to the first elections; and no member elected to supply a vacancy shall hold his seat longer than during the term for which the member occasioning the vacancy might, but for the cause creating the vacancy, have held his seat.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, whenever he shall see fit so to do, to prorogue, either by speech or by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, the Legislative Council, and also by Speech or by Proclamation to dissolve the said Council.

XXIX. Whenever, by reason of any such dissolution or by effluxion of time, there shall be a general election of members of the Legislative Council, the like Proclamations shall be issued by the Governor and the like proceedings, mutatis mutandis, be had and taken in regard to any such election as are hereinbefore directed in regard to the first elections under this Act.

XXX. The provisions of the seventy-eighth, eightieth, and nine following sections of the Constitution Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to apply in all respects to the proceedings and acts of the Legislative Council hereby established.

XXXI. The provisions of the Act No. 21 of 1859, intituled "An Act for preventing Bribery, Treating, and Undue Influence at Elections of Members of Parliament," shall be and are hereby declared to be applicable to all elections to be held under the provisions of this Act.

XXXII. No part of the expenses of any election to be held under the provisions of this Act shall be defrayed out of the public revenue, and no person holding an office of profit under Her Majesty, who may be appointed by the Governor to perform any duties thereunder, shall be entitled to receive any payment for the same, save and except such reasonable expenses as may be actually incurred by him in the performance of such duties.

XXXIII. If any returning officer or any person whatsoever shall wilfully contravene or disobey the provisions of this Act, or any of them, in respect to any matter or thing which he is hereby required to do, he shall for such his offence be liable to be sued in any competent court, by any voter, or person claiming to be a voter, or a candidate, or a member actually returned, or other party aggrieved, for the penal sum of one hundred pounds, and the plaintiff shall recover the said sum or such lesser sum as such court shall think he ought to pay for such offence, with full costs.

No. 4,175.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise on this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no official objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to take it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the giving time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would appear to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made to give anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14. Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow full time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorised by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Vijee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR PHILIP EDMOND WODEHOUSE,

Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c, &c., &c.

6th. 7th. That the Polling Officers for taking the Poll in the several Electoral Divisions shall, unless otherwise provided by law, as much as may be, be the same as those appointed by my Proclamation last hereinbefore mentioned to take the Poll in such Divisions, respectively, for Members of the Legislative Council; and the Returning Officer for every Electoral Division in which a Poll shall be taken shall place in the possession of every Polling Officer, other than such Returning Officer himself, a Certificate, under the hand of such Returning Officer, certifying that the Officer named therein has been appointed to take the Poll for Members of Assembly at the Polling Place or Polling Places mentioned in such Certificate.

And I do hereby further proclaim and make known, under and by virtue of the 9th Section of "The Corrupt Practices at Elections Prevention Act, 1859," that all Persons who shall be guilty of bribery, treating, or undue influence at or in reference to the said Election, will, upon conviction, be liable to the penalties in that behalf by the said Act provided.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 336, 1869.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
11th November, 1869.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following Draft of a Bill "To amend the Constitution of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope," which it is his intention to submit for the consideration of Parliament in its next ensuing Session.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

BILL

TO

Amend the Constitution of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope.

WHEREAS, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the 11th day of March, 1853, it was ordered and declared that nothing in the said Order contained should extend to prevent the Parliament of this Colony from making any Act or Acts (subject to Her Majesty's power to disallow the same, with the advice of Her Privy Council, or to assent to the same, if reserved for the signification of her pleasure thereon) in amendment of an Ordinance enacted on the 3rd day of April in the year 1852, intituled "An Ordinance for constituting a Parliament for the said Colony:" And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be amended: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. From and after the taking effect of this Act, so much of the said hereinbefore recited Ordinance of the year 1852, and so much of the Act No. 3 of the year 1865, intituled "An Act to make provision for the Incorporation of British Kaffraria with the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and to increase the number of the Members of both Houses of Parliament of the said Colony," as relates to the representation in Parliament of the divisions formerly composing British Kaffraria, as is not hereby re-enacted or retained in force, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. The Legislature of this Colony shall for the future consist of the Governor and of a Legislative Council.

III. The Legislative Council shall consist of a President to be appointed by Her Majesty, and of thirty-six members, four of whom shall be persons holding offices of profit under Her Majesty, and the remainder shall be elected in manner hereinafter provided.

IV. Eleven members of the said Council shall form a quorum for the dispatch of business. In the absence of the President, the members present shall elect one of their own number to preside. All questions arising in the said Council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present other than the President or the member presiding in his absence. But when the votes shall be equal the President or presiding member shall have the casting vote.

V .It shall be lawful for the Governor, by writing under his hand, from time to time to appoint such four persons holding offices of profit to be members of the said Council as to him shall appear expedient, and in like manner to remove any member so appointed, and to appoint some other person holding an office of profit to be a member in place of the person so removed, or in place of any such member dying, resigning, or becoming incapable of performing the duties of a member of the said Council.

VI. The thirty-two elective members of the said Council shall be elected as follows, that is to say: The City of Cape Town shall return two members, the City of Graham's Town shall return one member, and the electoral divisions of the Cape (exclusive of the City of Cape Town), Stellenbosch, Paarl, Malmesbury, Namaqualand, Clanwilliam, Beaufort, Victoria West, Caledon, Swellendam, Riversdale, George, Oudtshoorn, Worcester, Port Elizabeth, Uitenhage, Somerset, Graaff-Reinet, Cradock, Colesberg, Richmond, Albany (exclusive of the City of Grahams's Town), Fort Beaufort, Queen's Town, Albert, Aliwal North, Victoria East, King William's Town, and East London shall each return one member; and for the purposes of this Act the division of Piquetberg shall be annexed to and form part of the electoral division of Malmesbury.

VII. The thirty-two elective members shall vacate their seats at the expiration of five years from the date of their first election, and thereafter, at the end of five years from the date of any general election of such members, their seats shall become vacant, and there shall be a new election.

VIII. All persons who by virtue of any provision of the Constitution Ordinance which is now in force, and which is hereby retained in force, or of any other law relating thereto, are entitled to vote at the elections of the Legislative Council and of the House of Assembly as at present constituted, shall be entitled to vote at the elections of members of the Legislative Council hereby created, and all laws now in force for the registration of voters in the several divisions shall continue in force within the same, and all persons who may be hereafter registered in conformity with the same, shall be entitled to vote at all elections to be held under the provisions of this Act.

IX. The qualification for elective members of the Legislative Council to be hereby established shall be that established by the forty-seventh section of the Constitution Ordinance for members of the House of Assembly.

X. It shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time after the taking effect of this Act, to appoint, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, a day for the election of members for the Legislative Council, and by such Proclamation to appoint the returning officer for each electoral division and the polling officers, and fix the several polling places for the same, and the polling shall commence at eight o'clock and finally close at five o'clock on the same day; every such Proclamation shall be published not less than thirty days before the day fixed for polling.

XI. No person shall be deemed a candidate at any election of members of the said Council for any electoral division unless he shall have been invited to become such candidate by a requisition in writing, signed by not less than twenty-five of the persons qualified to vote in the election of a member for the said division, every such signature being accompanied by a full and correct address of the person so signing, and shall have accepted such requisition in writing under his hand, and shall have transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, within the time limited on this behalf, such requisition, with such acceptance thereof, together with an obligation signed by himself and by two sufficient sureties, binding themselves for the payment, in equal proportions with any other candidates who may be proposed for the same electoral division, of the expenses of such election (not exceeding the sum of —— pounds), as the said expenses shall be sanctioned and allowed by the Governor.

XII. No person shall be entitled to sign a requisition to more than one candidate, or to sign more than one requisition in respect of the same election; and if the same person shall sign more than one, his signature shall be expunged from all, and he shall not be capable of signing another for the election in respect of which he shall have so signed.

XIII. The Governor shall, by Proclamation or Proclamations to be published in the Government Gazette not less than —— days before the day appointed for taking the poll, call upon all candidates to transmit to the Colonial Secretary, on a day to be named in such Proclamation, the requisition, acceptance, and security bond hereinbefore mentioned; and the Governor shall, by Proclamation or Proclamations, to be published in like manner not less than —— days before the day appointed for taking the poll, declare the names of the candidates for the several electoral divisions who shall have complied with the provisions of this section, who shall thereupon be deemed to be eligible to be elected.

XIV. No person shall be permitted to vote in any electoral division for any member of the said Council, except a person whose name shall be inserted in the list of registered voters for such electoral division.

XV. The returning officer shall, before the day appointed for taking the poll, transmit to the person appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division in which such polling place shall be situate, certified under the hand of the civil commissioner for such division to be correct. And the returning officer shall at the same time transmit to such polling officer the names of the eligible candidates, which shall forthwith be by him fixed up in some conspicuous place at such polling place.

XVI. The list of registered voters in the preceding section mentioned shall for all purposes and in all places be deemed and taken to be conclusive proof of the right to vote of every person registered therein; and no such list shall be opened up, or the right of any voter mentioned therein questioned in any manner or by any proceeding in the Legislative Council.

XVII. No inquiry shall be permitted at the time of polling as to the right of any person to vote, except only as follows; that is to say, that the officer taking the poll shall, if required by or on behalf of any candidate, and of his own motion if it shall appear proper, put to any voter at the time of tendering his vote, and not afterwards, the following questions, or either of them, and none other:

Firstly,—Are, you, to the best of your knowledge and belief, the same person whose name appears as A.B., of ——, on the list of registered voters for the division of ——?

Secondly,—Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this election?

And if any person shall willfully make a false answer to either of such questions, he shall be deemed to be guilty of the crime of contravening this Act, and shall, on conviction, be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding two years.

XVIII. As soon as the time limited for keeping open the poll at any polling place shall have expired, the polling officer shall, with all convenient speed, deliver or securely transmit to the returning officer of the electoral division a list containing the names of all persons admitted to vote at such polling place, together with the names of the respective persons for whom such voters shall, respectively, have voted.

XIX. When and so soon as the returning officer shall be in possession of all the lists in the preceding section mentioned, he shall cast up and ascertain the number of votes given for each candidate, and shall, after notice affixed, for at least two clear days, to the court-room of the resident magistrate of the district in which such returning officer shall reside, openly declare in such court-room the state of the poll, and make proclamation of the member of the Legislative Council returned. But if in any case such returning officer shall find that by reason of any two or more candidates having received an equal number of votes, he cannot proclaim any one of them to have been duly elected, he shall call upon such candidates to draw lots publicly in his presence, either personally or by their agents duly appointed by writing under their hands, at some time and place to be by him fixed,—and shall thereafter proclaim as duly elected the candidate on whom the lot may fall,—and such returning officer shall then transmit to the Governor the name of the member elected.

XX. As soon as the Governor shall have received from the returning officers throughout the Colony the names of the members elected, he shall publish, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, the names of such members and of the electoral divisions which they respectively represent. And the day of the publication of such Proclamation shall, for the purposes of the — section hereof, be deemed and taken to be the date of the election of all the elective members of the Legislative Council.

XXI. The sessions of the Legislative Council shall be held at such time and place as the Governor shall from time to time, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, appoint, and at least once in every year, so that a period of twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting in one session and the first sitting in the next session.

XXII. No member shall be permitted to sit or vote in the Legislative Council until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Governor of the Colony, or before some person or persons authorized by such Governor to administer such oath:

I, A. B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, her Heirs and Successors, according to law.

XXIII. Every person authorized by law to make an affirmation, instead of taking an oath, may make such affirmation in every case in which an oath is hereinbefore required to be taken.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any registered voter to present to the said Council, through the President, a petition alleging in regard to any member that he is not qualified in terms of the ninth section of this Act; and the President shall, at the next sitting thereafter, inform the Council of the receipt and contents of the petition, and if the member do not then admit the truth of the same, the Council shall appoint a time at which, without debate, it will choose a committee of three members for inquiring into the petition; and such committee shall be chosen by writing upon a separate piece of paper the name of each member of the said Council (not being related either to the member whose qualification is in question, or to the petitioner, within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity), which pieces of paper, being all as nearly as may be of equal size, shall be put together in a box to be provided for that purpose, and the Clerk of the Council shall draw out three of the said papers one after another, and the said three members so first drawn shall form the committee, and the said committee shall, with all convenient speed, inquire into the matter of the said petition to them referred, and shall hear what shall be urged on the part of the petitioner and on the part of the member whose qualification shall be questioned, and all the evidence offered by either of them, and shall then report to the Council the result of their inquiry, and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that the member whose qualification shall have been so questioned is duly qualified, the petition shall be dismissed; and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that such member is not duly qualified, then such member shall, upon the bringing up of such report, be deemed and taken to have vacated his seat. No such petition shall be taken into consideration by the Council until the party petitioning shall have given security, to the satisfaction of the President, that he will duly pay and satisfy such sum or sums of money, if any, as he may be lawfully condemned or adjudged to pay under and by virtue of the provisions of the next succeeding section hereof.

XXV. When any petition shall, upon the report of any committee as aforesaid, be dismissed, the party petitioning shall be liable to pay to the member whose qualification shall have been called in question the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, together with and over and above any special damage, charges, or expenses which such member shall prove himself to have sustained from or expended by reasons of the said petition, which sums shall be recovered by action in any competent court, together with costs of suit, unless the defendant shall in his defence succeed in proving, to the satisfaction of the said court, either that such member was not, when such petition was presented, duly qualified, or otherwise that he, the defendant, had, when such petition was presented, reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not so qualified. When the said defendant shall fail in proving that such member was not, at the time aforesaid, duly qualified, but shall succeed in proving that he had reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not duly qualified, such defendant shall still be condemned in the costs of suit. And in case such defendant shall succeed in proving that such member was not at the time aforesaid duly qualified, such defendant shall be entitled to judgment in his favour, with the costs of suit.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any elective member of the Legislative Council, by writing under his hand, addressed to the President, to resign his seat in the said Council, and upon such resignation the seat of such member shall become vacant. And if any such member shall for one whole session of the said Council fail to give his attendance therein, without the permission of the said Council, or shall take any oath or make any declaration of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to any foreign Prince or Power, or shall do, or concur in, or adopt any such act whereby he may become a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power, or if his estate shall be sequestrated as insolvent, the seat of such member shall thereby become vacant.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on receiving from the President, or from any two elective members of the said Council, a certificate under their hands, supported by such evidence as he shall consider sufficient, that any elective seat or seats therein has or have become vacant, by Proclamation, to command, in like manner, mutatis mutandis, as is hereinbefore directed in regard to the first elections under this Act, a new election or new elections for supplying such vacancy or vacancies; and the like proceedings shall, mutatis mutandis, take place in regard to such elections for supplying vacancies as are hereinbefore ordered in regard to the first elections; and no member elected to supply a vacancy shall hold his seat longer than during the term for which the member occasioning the vacancy might, but for the cause creating the vacancy, have held his seat.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, whenever he shall see fit so to do, to prorogue, either by speech or by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, the Legislative Council, and also by Speech or by Proclamation to dissolve the said Council.

XXIX. Whenever, by reason of any such dissolution or by effluxion of time, there shall be a general election of members of the Legislative Council, the like Proclamations shall be issued by the Governor and the like proceedings, mutatis mutandis, be had and taken in regard to any such election as are hereinbefore directed in regard to the first elections under this Act.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 309, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
28 October, 1869.

DE volgende instruktien worden gepubliceerd tot rigtsnoer voor de Beambten van Stemopneming bij de aanstaande Verkiezing van Leden der Wetgevende Vergadering van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,

R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

Instruktien ten dienste van Beambten van Stemopneming.

1. Men moet in gedachte houden, dat de Kiesgeregtigden, wanneer zij stemmen voor Leden van de Wetgevende Vergadering, alleen mogen stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van ingevulde of geteekende lijsten, even als voor Leden van den Raad.

2. De Beambte van Stemopneming zal zorg dragen voorzien te zijn van boeken met blaauw geliniëerd papier, met afzonderlijke kolommen voor de verschillende kandidaten met de namen van dezen aan het hoofd; en wanneer de kiezer de namen van den kandidaat of van de kandidaten noemt, voor welke hij stemt, zal de Beambte van Stemopneming den naam des kiezers opschrijven, en daartegenover in de behoorlijke kolom aanteekenen voor wien hij stemt.

3. Behalve in de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, alwaar ieder kiezer vier stemmen heeft, heeft iedere kiezer twee stemmen en niet meer. En behalve in Kaapstad, kan geen kiezer aan eenigen kandidaat meer dan eene stem geven. Maar iedere kiezer mag, als hij zulks dienstig acht, stemmen enkel voor éénen kandidaat.

4. In de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, die vier leden afvaardigt, heeft iedere kiezer het regt om vier stemmen uit te brengen, en hij mag al zijne stemmen geven aan een Kandidaat of wel zijne stemmen gelijkelijk of ongelijk verdeelen over zoovele der Kandidaten als hij geschikt oordeelt. Maar in Kaapstad, even als in de andere kiesafdeelingen, zal de kiezer moeten stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van lijsten.

5. Geen der kiezers is verpligt, enkel in zijne eigene wijk te stemmen. Elke Stemplaats in eene kiesafdeeling is open voor iedereen kiezer van die kiesafdeeling.

6. Het wordt er voor gehouden, dat in elk geval, waarin een kiezer komt stemmen aan eene Stemplaats buiten zijne eigene wijk, en misschien in vele andere gevallen evenzoo, dat de Beambte van Stemopneming wel zal handelen met de volgende vraag te doen, waartoe in hare bewoordingen de Wet magtiging verleent: "Hebt gij reeds gestemd, hetzij hier of elders, in deze kiesafdeeling, voor eenigerlei Lid van de Wetgevende Vergadering?" Men moet voor oogen houden, dat jeder die opzettelijk een valsch antwoord op die vraag geeft strafbaar is met gevangenzetting met of zonder dwangarbeid voor een tijdvak van twee jaren.

7. Geen Beambte van Stemopneming behoort, onder welke omstandigheden ook, eene stem aan te nemen voor iemand, die niet is voorgesteld en geërkendeerd als kandidaat.

8. De Beambten van Stemopneming zullen regtvaardig toezien, geene stem aan te nemen van iemand, die niet geregistreerd is. Maar iemand, wiens identiteit onbetwistbaar is, en die buiten twijfel de persoon is, die meende naamkeurig geregistreerd te zijn en die verondersteld werd naamkeurig geregistreerd te zijn, zou ten slotte toch niet akkuraat geregistreerd kunnen wezen. De Beambten van Stemopneming moet zich in al zulke gevallen richten naar het beginsel, opgesloten liggende in de laatste Clausule van Artikel 41 der Constitutie Ordonnantie. Hij moet op twee punten zijne aandacht vestigen. Hij moet eerst overtuigd zijn, dat de persoon, die voor hem verschijnt om te stemmen, dezelfde persoon is, in het register bedoeld. Indien de naam, door den kiezer opgegeven, precies dezelfde naam is, als die op de registratie lijst in handen van den beambte van stemopneming, en indien nergens uit blijkt, dat er een ander persoon van dienzelfden naam bestaat, die met de registratie bedoeld wordt, dan kan er geene moeijelijkheid bestaan. Maar indien de persoon die voor den beambte van stemopneming verschijnt, om te stemmen, meer vóórnamen of minder vóórnamen of andere vóórnamen opgeeft, dan die op de registratie lijst staan aangeteekend, ontstaat er moeijelijkheid. Indien evenwel de identiteit bevestigd is, zal het onderscheid in de vóórnamen den kiezer niet van zijn stemregt berooven. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers zou b.v. kunnen voorkomen om te stemmen, terwijl misschien zoodanig naam niet op de registratie lijst staat. Maar indien Paulus Johannes de Villiers op de lijst voorkomt, en het duidelijk mogt worden gemaakt, dat die verkeerde namen voor den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers bedoeld waren, dan zal het den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, geoorloofd zijn te stemmen. Ook zal geene vergissing in het spellen, zelfs van den geslagtsnaam, den kiezer van zijn stemregt berooven, ingeval de identiteit van den persoon is uitgemaakt. De geslachtsnaam, evenwel, van den persoon, die komt om te stemmen, moet of dezelfde klank hebben als de naam aan hem gegeven op de registratielijst, of de eene naam moet eene verbastering van den anderen zijn. Geene getuigenis omtrent den persoon, hoe sterk ook, zou kunnen worden aangenomen om te doen blijken, dat Thompson, die komt om te stemmen, geregistreerd was als Smith. Dit is niet enkel eene fout in de spelling van den geslachtsnaam, maar het is eene gansch andere geslachtsnaam. Maar Thomason zou kunnen geregistreerd zijn als Thomson, want dit is louter eene vergissing in de spelling, en de namen Visser en Fisher, Laubser en Lobser, de Villiers en Viljoe, Haupt en Hoof, zijn voorbeelden van eene soort van verbasteringen, die men wel in aanmerking moet nemen. Maar telkens wanneer een kiezer een naam opgeeft, die op eenigerlei wijze verschilt van den geregistreerden naam, zal de beambte van stemopneming, bij het schrijven van den naam in het Stemboek, zien naam aanteekenen, zoo als die geregistreerd is, zoodat de toelating tot het stemmen zal kunnen worden klaar!

No. 4,175.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting any candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14 Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow ful time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the polling officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of tak that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or sighed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorized by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Loober, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.

PROCLAMATION

BY HIS EXCELLENCY SIR PHILIP EDMOND WODEHOUSE,

Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, in South Africa, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and Vice-Admiral of the same, and Her Majesty's High Commissioner, &c., &c., &c.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 336, 1869.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
11th November, 1869.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the following Draft of a Bill "To amend the Constitution of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope," which it is his intention to submit for the consideration of Parliament in its next ensuing Session.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

BILL

TO

Amend the Constitution of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope.

WHEREAS, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the 11th day of March, 1853, it was ordered and declared that nothing in the said Order contained should extend to prevent the Parliament of this Colony from making any Act or Acts (subject to Her Majesty's power to disallow the same, with the advice of Her Privy Council, or to assent to the same, if reserved for the signification of her pleasure thereon) in amendment of an Ordinance enacted on the 3rd day of April in the year 1852, intituled "An Ordinance for constituting a Parliament for the said Colony:" And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance should be amended: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

I. From and after the taking effect of this Act, so much of the said hereinbefore recited Ordinance of the year 1852, and so much of the Act No. 3 of the year 1865, intituled "An Act to make provision for the Incorporation of British Kaffraria with the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and to increase the number of the Members of both Houses of Parliament of the said Colony," as relates to the representation in Parliament of the divisions formerly composing British Kaffraria, as is not hereby re-enacted or retained in force, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. The Legislature of this Colony shall for the future consist of the Governor and of a Legislative Council.

III. The Legislative Council shall consist of a President to be appointed by Her Majesty, and of thirty-six members, four of whom shall be persons holding offices of profit under Her Majesty, and the remainder shall be elected in manner hereinafter provided.

IV. Eleven members of the said Council shall form a quorum for the dispatch of business. In the absence of the President, the members present shall elect one of their own number to preside. All questions arising in the said Council shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present other than the President or the member presiding in his absence. But when the votes shall be equal the President or presiding member shall have the casting vote.

V .It shall be lawful for the Governor, by writing under his hand, from time to time to appoint such four persons holding offices of profit to be members of the said Council as to him shall appear expedient, and in like manner to remove any member so appointed, and to appoint some other person holding an office of profit to be a member in place of the person so removed, or in place of any such member dying, resigning, or becoming incapable of performing the duties of a member of the said Council.

VI. The thirty-two elective members of the said Council shall be elected as follows, that is to say: The City of Cape Town shall return two members, the City of Graham's Town shall return one member, and the electoral divisions of the Cape (exclusive of the City of Cape Town), Stellenbosch, Paarl, Malmesbury, Namaqualand, Clanwilliam, Beaufort, Victoria West, Caledon, Swellendam, Riversdale, George, Oudtshoorn, Worcester, Port Elizabeth, Uitenhage, Somerset, Graaff-Reinet, Cradock, Colesberg, Richmond, Albany (exclusive of the City of Grahams's Town), Fort Beaufort, Queen's Town, Albert, Aliwal North, Victoria East, King William's Town, and East London shall each return one member; and for the purposes of this Act the division of Piquetberg shall be annexed to and form part of the electoral division of Malmesbury.

VII. The thirty-two elective members shall vacate their seats at the expiration of five years from the date of their first election, and thereafter, at the end of five years from the date of any general election of such members, their seats shall become vacant, and there shall be a new election.

VIII. All persons who by virtue of any provision of the Constitution Ordinance which is now in force, and which is hereby retained in force, or of any other law relating thereto, are entitled to vote at the elections of the Legislative Council and of the House of Assembly as at present constituted, shall be entitled to vote at the elections of members of the Legislative Council hereby created, and all laws now in force for the registration of voters in the several divisions shall continue in force within the same, and all persons who may be hereafter registered in conformity with the same, shall be entitled to vote at all elections to be held under the provisions of this Act.

IX. The qualification for elective members of the Legislative Council to be hereby established shall be that established by the forty-seventh section of the Constitution Ordinance for members of the House of Assembly.

X. It shall be lawful for the Governor, at any time after the taking effect of this Act, to appoint, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, a day for the election of members for the Legislative Council, and by such Proclamation to appoint the returning officer for each electoral division and the polling officers, and fix the several polling places for the same, and the polling shall commence at eight o'clock and finally close at five o'clock on the same day; every such Proclamation shall be published not less than thirty days before the day fixed for polling.

XI. No person shall be deemed a candidate at any election of members of the said Council for any electoral division unless he shall have been invited to become such candidate by a requisition in writing, signed by not less than twenty-five of the persons qualified to vote in the election of a member for the said division, every such signature being accompanied by a full and correct address of the person so signing, and shall have accepted such requisition in writing under his hand, and shall have transmitted to the Colonial Secretary, within the time limited on this behalf, such requisition, with such acceptance thereof, together with an obligation signed by himself and by two sufficient sureties, binding themselves for the payment, in equal proportions with any other candidates who may be proposed for the same electoral division, of the expenses of such election (not exceeding the sum of —— pounds), as the said expenses shall be sanctioned and allowed by the Governor.

XII. No person shall be entitled to sign a requisition to more than one candidate, or to sign more than one requisition in respect of the same election; and if the same person shall sign more than one, his signature shall be expunged from all, and he shall not be capable of signing another for the election in respect of which he shall have so signed.

XIII. The Governor shall, by Proclamation or Proclamations to be published in the Government Gazette not less than ——— days before the day appointed for taking the poll, call upon all candidates to transmit to the Colonial Secretary, on a day to be named in such Proclamation, the requisition, acceptance, and security bond hereinbefore mentioned; and the Governor shall, by Proclamation or Proclamations, to be published in like manner not less than ——— days before the day appointed for taking the poll, declare the names of the candidates for the several electoral divisions who shall have complied with the provisions of this section, who shall thereupon be deemed to be eligible to be elected.

XIV. No person shall be permitted to vote in any electoral division for any member of the said Council, except a person whose name shall be inserted in the list of registered voters for such electoral division.

XV. The returning officer shall, before the day appointed for taking the poll, transmit to the person appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division in which such polling place shall be situate, certified under the hand of the civil commissioner for such division to be correct. And the returning officer shall at the same time transmit to such polling officer the names of the eligible candidates, which shall forthwith be by him fixed up in some conspicuous place at such polling place.

XVI. The list of registered voters in the preceding section mentioned shall for all purposes and in all places be deemed and taken to be conclusive proof of the right to vote of every person registered therein; and no such list shall be opened up, or the right of any voter mentioned therein questioned in any manner or by any proceeding in the Legislative Council.

XVII. No inquiry shall be permitted at the time of polling as to the right of any person to vote, except only as follows: that is to say, that the officer taking the poll shall, if required by or on behalf of any candidate, and of his own motion if it shall appear proper, put to any voter at the time of tendering his vote, and not afterwards, the following questions, or either of them, and none other:

Firstly,—Are, you, to the best of your knowledge and belief, the same person whose name appears as A.B., of ———, on the list of registered voters for the division of ———?

Secondly,—Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, at this election?

And if any person shall willfully make a false answer to either of such questions, he shall be deemed to be guilty of the crime of contravening this Act, and shall, on conviction, be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding two years.

XVIII. As soon as the time limited for keeping open the poll at any polling place shall have expired, the polling officer shall, with all convenient speed, deliver or securely transmit to the returning officer of the electoral division, a list containing the names of all persons admitted to vote at such polling place, together with the names of the respective persons for whom such voters shall, respectively, have voted.

XIX. When and so soon as the returning officer shall be in possession of all the lists in the preceding section mentioned, he shall cast up and ascertain the number of votes given for each candidate, and shall, after notice affixed, for at least two clear days, to the court-room of the resident magistrate of the district in which such returning officer shall reside, openly declare in such court-room the state of the poll, and make proclamation of the member of the Legislative Council returned. But if in any case such returning officer shall find that by reason of any two or more candidates having received an equal number of votes, he cannot proclaim any one of them to have been duly elected, he shall call upon such candidates to draw lots publicly in his presence, either personally or by their agents duly appointed by writing under their hands, at some time and place to be by him fixed,—and shall thereafter proclaim as duly elected the candidate on whom the lot may fall,—and such returning officer shall then transmit to the Governor the name of the member elected.

XX. As soon as the Governor shall have received from the returning officers throughout the Colony the names of the members elected, he shall publish, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, the names of such members and of the electoral divisions which they respectively represent And the day of the publication of such Proclamation shall, for the purposes of the — section hereof, be deemed and taken to be the date of the election of all the elective members of the Legislative Council.

XXI. The sessions of the Legislative Council shall be held at such time and place as the Governor shall from time to time, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, appoint, and at least once in every year, so that a period of twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting in one session and the first sitting in the next session.

XXII. No member shall be permitted to sit or vote in the Legislative Council until he shall have taken and subscribed the following oath before the Governor of the Colony, or before some person or persons authorized by such Governor to administer such oath:

I, A. B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, her Heirs and Successors, according to law.

XXIII. Every person authorized by law to make an affirmation, instead of taking an oath, may make such affirmation in every case in which an oath is hereinbefore required to be taken.

XXIV. It shall be lawful for any registered voter to present to the said Council, through the President, a petition alleging in regard to any member that he is not qualified in terms of the ninth section of this Act; and the President shall, at the next sitting thereafter, inform the Council of the receipt and contents of the petition, and if the member do not then admit the truth of the same, the Council shall appoint a time at which, without debate, it will choose a committee of three members for inquiring into the petition; and such committee shall be chosen by writing upon a separate piece of paper the name of each member of the said Council (not being related either to the member whose qualification is in question, or to the petitioner, within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity), which pieces of paper, being all as nearly as may be of equal size, shall be put together in a box to be provided for that purpose, and the Clerk of the Council shall draw out three of the said papers one after another, and the said three members so first drawn shall form the committee, and the said committee shall, with all convenient speed, inquire into the matter of the said petition to them referred, and shall hear what shall be urged on the part of the petitioner and on the part of the member whose qualification shall be questioned, and all the evidence offered by either of them, and shall then report to the Council the result of their inquiry, and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that the member whose qualification shall have been so questioned is duly qualified, the petition shall be dismissed; and if the said committee shall unanimously, or by a majority, report that such member is not duly qualified, then such member shall, upon the bringing up of such report, be deemed and taken to have vacated his seat. No such petition shall be taken into consideration by the Council until the party petitioning shall have given security, to the satisfaction of the President, that he will duly pay and satisfy such sum or sums of money, if any, as he may be lawfully condemned or adjudged to pay under and by virtue of the provisions of the next succeeding section hereof.

XXV. When any petition shall, upon the report of any committee as aforesaid, be dismissed, the party petitioning shall be liable to pay to the member whose qualification shall have been called in question the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, together with and over and above any special damage, charges, or expenses which such member shall prove himself to have sustained from or expended by reasons of the said petition, which sums shall be recovered by action in any competent court, together with costs of suit, unless the defendant shall in his defence succeed in proving, to the satisfaction of the said court, either that such member was not, when such petition was presented, duly qualified, or otherwise that he, the defendant, had, when such petition was presented, reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not so qualified. When the said defendant shall fail in proving that such member was not, at the time aforesaid, duly qualified, but shall succeed in proving that he had reasonable and probable cause for believing that such member was not duly qualified, such defendant shall still be condemned in the costs of suit. And in case such defendant shall succeed in proving that such member was not at the time aforesaid duly qualified, such defendant shall be entitled to judgment in his favour, with the costs of suit.

XXVI. It shall be lawful for any elective member of the Legislative Council, by writing under his hand, addressed to the President, to resign his seat in the said Council, and upon such resignation the seat of such member shall become vacant. And if any such member shall for one whole session of the said Council fail to give his attendance therein, without the permission of the said Council, or shall take any oath or make any declaration of allegiance, obedience, or adherence to any foreign Prince or Power, or shall do, or concur in, or adopt any such act whereby he may become a subject or citizen of any foreign State or Power, or if his estate shall be sequestrated as insolvent, the seat of such member shall thereby become vacant.

XXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on receiving from the President, or from any two elective members of the said Council, a certificate under their hands, supported by such evidence as he shall consider sufficient, that any elective seat or seats therein has or have become vacant, by Proclamation, to command, in like manner, mutatis mutandis, as is hereinbefore directed in regard to the first elections under this Act, a new election or new elections for supplying such vacancy or vacancies; and the like proceedings shall, mutatis mutandis, take place in regard to such elections for supplying vacancies as are hereinbefore ordered in regard to the first elections; and no member elected to supply a vacancy shall hold his seat longer than during the term for which the member occasioning the vacancy might, but for the cause creating the vacancy, have held his seat.

XXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor, whenever he shall see fit so to do, to prorogue, either by speech or by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette, the Legislative Council, and also by Speech or by Proclamation to dissolve the said Council.

XXIX. Whenever, by reason of any such dissolution or by effluxion of time, there shall be a general election of members of the Legislative Council, the like Proclamations shall be issued by the Governor and the like proceedings, mutatis mutandis, be had and taken in regard to any such election as are hereinbefore directed in regard to the first elections under this Act.

XXX. The provisions of the seventy-eighth, eightieth, and nine following sections of the Constitution Ordinance shall be deemed and taken to apply in all respects to the proceedings and acts of the Legislative Council hereby established.

XXXI. The provisions of the Act No. 21 of 1859, intituled "An Act for preventing Bribery, Treating, and Undue Influence at Elections of Members of Parliament," shall be and are hereby declared to be applicable to all elections to be held under the provisions of this Act.

XXXII. No part of the expenses of any election to be held under the provisions of this Act shall be defrayed out of the public revenue, and no person holding an office of profit under Her Majesty, who may be appointed by the Governor to perform any duties thereunder, shall be entitled to receive any payment for the same, save and except such reasonable expenses as may be actually incurred by him in the performance of such duties.

XXXIII. If any returning officer or any person whatsoever shall wilfully contravene or disobey the provisions of this Act, or any of them, in respect to any matter or thing which he is hereby required to do, he shall for such his offence be liable to be sued in any competent court, by any voter, or person claiming to be a voter, or a candidate, or a member actually returned, or other party aggrieved, for the penal sum of one hundred pounds, and the plaintiff shall recover the said sum or such lesser sum as such court shall think he ought to pay for such offence, with full costs.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 341, 1869.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope,
17th November, 1869.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the publication of the accompanying Correspondence upon the subject of some specimens of Shale collected at Port Alfred.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

2, Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street,
Westminster, S.W., 9th October, 1869.

SOUTH AFRICAN HARBOUR, PORT ALFRED.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary, &c, &c., &c.,
Cape Town.

SIR,—Upon Mr. Neate's return to England I thought it desirable to submit some specimens of shales collected by him at Port Alfred to a competent geological authority here, for an opinion as to their probable connection with the true coal measures, and accordingly sent them to Mr. H. W. Bristow, of the Geological Survey of England, and have now the pleasure of transmitting to you a copy of that gentleman's report upon the subject.

It will be observed that Mr. Bristow speaks with considerable confidence as to the connection of these shales with the true coal measures, and I understand that his views were entirely endorsed by Mr Etheridge, Palæontologist to the Geological Survey of England.

It is very satisfactory to find so encouraging an opinion expressed upon a subject of such paramount importance to the interest, not only of the locality but also of the Colony generally.

It had been my intention to embody, in my report upon the harbour of Port Alfred, the result of the reference to Mr. Bristow, but having regard to the confident opinion which he expresses, and to the importance of the subject, I have thought it better, at once, to forward the copy of Mr. Bristow's communication.

I understand from Mr. Neate that specimens of the Port Alfred shale were sent to Manchester some time ago by Mr. William Cock, jun., but, so far as I can learn, that gentleman did not receive any authoritative or conclusive opinion in regard to them.

Probably, under these circumstances, the Colonial Government may think fit to have a series of trial borings made in the locality by a person thoroughly experienced in such investigations.

I have, &c.,

JNO. COODE.

Geological Survey Office, 28, Jermyn-street,
London, S.W., 30th September, 1869.

To JOHN COODE, Esq., C.E., 2, Westminster Chambers
Victoria-street, Westminster, S.W.

SIR,—I have carefully examined the shales collected by Mr. Neate, from Port Alfred, in the Cape Colony, during his recent inspection of that harbour.

From the general physical nature of the shales themselves, as well as from the plant remains distributed through them,—indeed from the general facies of the whole,—I have no hesitation in assigning them to the date of the true coal or carboniferous period, as recognized in Europe and the British Islands.

The shales are so micaceous, fissile, and incoherent in structure; that the remains of the plants are badly preserved, and can with difficulty be made out or determined, and but for the better state of preservation of a few fragments, no decided opinion could have been formed of them.

The better preserved portions, however, being characteristic, enable me to fix their geological age and affinities; and I am, therefore, able to refer them to the age or the true coal or to the Palæozoic Series.

Six genera may be determined, but their badly preserved condition forbids specific determination or naming; and it is questionable whether they can be correlated with known and described European forms, until better specimens can be forwarded for examination.

The following are the genera which have been identified, viz:—

Sigillaria.—A well known genus, "Sigillaria," seems to be abundantly distributed through the shales, but in a fragmentary condition. These remains are closely allied to forms which are known to occur in European and British coal measures.

Stigmaria.—This, an abundant form in all true coal measures, is common here also. It appears to be the well-known species "Stigmaria ficoides" of our British coal measures.

Lepidodendron Lepidostrobus.—This genus, so common to all known carboniferous deposits, is also abundantly represented here; although in fragments, its fruit "Lepidostrobus" appears to be by no means uncommon, and is distributed through the shales.

Halonia.—Many specimens or remains of this genus occur, but in a badly preserved state. This is also a well-known genus belonging to the true coal measures of Europe, &c.

Selaginites.—This is referred, with doubt, on account of the fragmentary condition of the specimens, to the genus "Selaginites," of which it may, perhaps, be a closely allied form.

The abovenamed are all the forms which admit of identification. They are, nevertheless, sufficient to enable me to state that I have no doubt but that the shales and the plant remains collected by Mr. Neate from Port Alfred belong to rocks of carboniferous age (Palæozoic).

As the occurrence of coal in the vicinity of Port Alfred would be of the greatest importance with regard to its development, as well as to the Colony generally, the highly interesting discovery, in a geological point of view, lately made by Mr. Neate, of the existence of true carboniferous strata may, in addition, prove of great commercial value, should these last be found to contain workable seams of coal.

In order to ascertain this, careful search should be made over the area in question, and across the dip or underlay of the rocks (if exposed at the surface) for definite beds of seams of coal. The presence of "stigmaria" amongst the shales would lead me to infer (from the habit of that plant) that workable seams of coal may occur.

I am, &c,

H. W. BRISTOW,
Geological Survey of England.

General Post Office, London,
31st August, 1869.

SIR,—I am directed by the Postmaster-General to acquaint you, for the information of Earl Granville, that the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have had under their consideration the question of retaining the privilege granted some years ago to Officers serving on board Her Majesty's ships abroad of sending and receiving their letters at a reduced rate rate of postage, in those cases where the British rate exceeds sixpence per single letter, and which privilege was subsequently extended to the letters of Officers in the Army serving abroad, and in the Colonies; and adverting to the difficulties which have attended the arrangement, in the attempt to confine it to those persons for whom alone it was intended, their Lordships have come to the decision that it is not expedient to continue such privileges after the termination of the present year.

A Treasury Warrant, dated the 17th instant, has accordingly been issued, withdrawing the privileges in question after the 31st December next, from which date the Officers of both Services will be placed, as regards the postage of their letters, upon the same footing as the general public.

Earl Granville will probably think it right to cause the Governors of the several British Colonies to be apprized of this decision. Some copies of the Treasury Warrant are enclosed for transmission to the Colonies.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) FRANK IVES SCUDAMORE.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 96, for the regulation of the duties of postage, power is given to the Postmaster-General to remit any of the rates of British postage for the time being payable by law on the transmission of post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers to such extent as the Lords of the Treasury shall from time to time direct; and power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates.

And whereas further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have at various times, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers so reserved and given to them as aforesaid, by divers Warrants under their hands, made and given certain regulations, orders, and directions, whereby the several persons in such Warrants respectively mentioned and described, being Commissioned and other Officers employed in the Military and Naval Services under Her Majesty, respectively mentioned in the said several Warrants, were authorised to send and receive letters transmitted by the post between the several places therein respectively mentioned, by fire means and routes therein respectively mentioned and set forth, at certain reduced rates of postage therein specified.

And whereas it is expedient that such Warrants and such regulations, orders, directions, and rates of postage therein contained should be altered, repealed, and revoked, and that letters sent or received by such persons respectively should be made subject to the several rates of postage and regulations to which ordinary letters of the public are liable in respect of their transmission by the post.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order and direct as follows:

1. That the several Warrants, dated respectively the 16th day of May, 1857, the 3rd day of October, 1864, and the 27th day of September, 1867, and so much of the Warrant dated the 1st day of May, 1858, as relates to or affects letters sent to or by Superintending or First-class Schoolmasters in Her Majesty's Army, and also so much of every Treasury Warrant now in force as saves or exempts from the operation thereof letters sent to or by the several persons mentioned in the said Warrants of the 16th day of May, 1857, the 3rd day of October, 1864, and the 27th day of September, 1867, and Superintending or First-class Schoolmasters in Her Majesty's Army, shall be and the same are and is hereby respectively repealed, revoked and annulled, and that from henceforth letters sent to or by such several persons respectively shall be liable, in respect of the transmission thereof by the post, to the same rates of postage, and to the same regulations, orders, directions, conditions, and restrictions respectively as are now or may at any time hereafter be in force, and applicable to ordinary letters sent and received by the post by the general public.

2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to repeal, revoke, annul, or in anywise affect the exemptions and privileges as to re-directed letters granted by or under a certain Warrant, dated the 22nd day of October, 1860, which said Warrant and exemptions therein contained shall remain in full force and effect.

3. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said firstly hereinbefore recited Act.

4. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders or directions hereby made, and may make and establish other orders or directions in lieu thereof.

5. This Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the seventeenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

KAAPSTAD, DEN 19DEN NOVEMBER, 1869.

GOUVERNEMENTS BERIGT No. 309, 1869.

Koloniale Secretarie, Kaap de Goede Hoop,
28 October, 1869.

DE volgende instruktien worden gepubliceerd tot rigtsnoer voor de Beambten van Stemopneming bij de aanstaande Verkiezing van Leden der Wetgevende Vergadering van de Kaap de Goede Hoop.

Ter Ordonnantie van Z. E. den Gouverneur,
R. SOUTHEY,
Koloniale Secretaris.

Instruktien ten dienste van Beambten van Stemopneming.

1. Men moet in gedachte houden, dat de Kiesgeregtigden, wanneer zij stemmen voor Leden van de Wetgevende Vergadering, alleen mogen stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van ingevulde of geteekende lijsten, even als voor Leden van den Raad.

2. De Beambte van Stemopneming zal zorg dragen voorzien te zijn van boeken met flaauw gelinieerd papier, met afzonderlijke kolommen voor de verschillende kandidaten met de namen van dezen aan het hoofd; en wanneer de kiezer de namen van den kandidaat of van de kandidaten noemt, voor welke hij stemt, zal de Beambte van Stemopneming den naam des kiezers opschrijven, en da rtegenover in de behoorlijke kolom aanteekenen voor wien hij stemt.

3. Behalve in de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, alwaar ieder kiezer vier stemmen heeft heeft iedere kiezer twee stemmen en niet meer. En behalve in Kaapstad, kan geen kiezer aan eenigen kandidaat meer dan eene stem geven. Maar iedere kiezer mag, als hij zulks dienstig acht, stemmen enkel voor éénen kandidaat.

4. In de kiesafdeeling Kaapstad, die vier leden afvaardigt, heeft iedere kiezer het regt om vier stemmen uit te brengen, en hij mag al zijne stemmen geven aan een Kandidaat of wel zijne stemmen gelijkelijk of ongelijk verdeelen over zoovele der Kandidaten als hij geschikt oordeelt. Maar in Kaapstad, even als in de andere kiesafdeelingen, zal de kiezer moeten stemmen bij monde en niet door middel van lijsten.

5. Geen der kiezers is verpligt, enkel in zijne eigene wijk te stemmen. Elke Stemplaats in eene kiesafdeeling is open voor iedereen kiezer van die kiesafdeeling.

6. Het wordt er voor gehouden, dat in elk geval, waarin een kiezer komt stemmen aan eene Stemplaats buiten zijne eigene wijk, en misschien in vele andere gevallen evenzoo, dat de Beambte van Stemopneming wel zal handelen met de volgende vraag te doen, waartoe in hare bewoordingen de Wet magtiging verleent: "Hebt gij reeds gestemd, hetzij hier of elders, in deze kiesafdeeling, voor eenigerlei Lid van de Wetgevende Vergadering?" Men moet voor oogen houden, dat ieder die opzettelijk een valsch antwoord op die vraag geeft strafbaar is met gevangenzetting met of zonder dwangarbeid voor een tijdvak van twee jaren.

7. Geen Beambte van Stemopneming behoort, onder welke omstandigheden ook, eene stem aan te nemen voor iemand, die niet is voorgesteld en gesekondeerd als kandidaat.

8. De Beambten van Stemopneming zullen zorgvuldig toezien, geene stem aan te nemen van iemand, die niet geregistreerd is. Maar iemand wiens identiteit onbetwistbaar is, en die buiten twijfel de persoon is, die meende naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn en die verondersteld werd naauwkeurig geregistreerd te zijn, zou ten sloote toch niet akkuraat geregistreerd kunnen wezen. De Beambten van Stemopneming moet zich in al zulke gevallen rigten naar het beginsel, opgesloten liggende in de laatste Clausule van Artikel 41 der Constitutie Ordonnantie. Hij moet op twee punten zijne aandacht vestigen. Hij moet eerst overtuigd zijn dat de persoon, die voor hem verschijnt om te stemmen, dezelfde persoon is, in het register bedoeld. Indien de naam, door den kiezer opgegeven, precies dezelfde naam is, als die op de registratie lijst in handen van den beambte van stemopneming,—en indien nergens uit blijkt, dat er een ander persoon van denzelfden naam bestaat, die met de registratie bedoeld wordt, dan kan er geene moeijelijkheid bestaan. Maar indien de persoon die voor den beambte van stemopneming verschijnt, om te stemmen, meer vóórnamen of minder vóórnamen of andere vóórnamen opgeeft, dan die op de registratie lijst staan aangeteekend, ontstaat er moeijelijkheid. Indien evenwel de identiteit bevestigd is, zal het onderscheid in de vóórnamen den kiezer niet van zijn stemregt berooven. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers zou b.v. kunnen voorkomen om te stemmen, terwijl misschien zoodanig naam niet op de registratie lijst staat. Maar indien Paulus Johannes de Villiers op de lijst voorkomt, en het duidelijk mogt worden gemaakt, dat die verkeerde namen voor den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers bedoeld waren, dan zal het den regten man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, geoorloofd zijn te stemmen. Ook zal geene vergissing in het spellen, zelfs van den geslagtsnaam, den kiezer van zijn stemregt berooven, ingeval de identiteit van den persoon is uitgemaakt. De geslachtsnaam, evenwel, van den persoon, die komt om te stemmen, moet of dezelfde klank hebben als de naam aan hem gegeven op de registratielijst, of de eene naam moet eene verbastering van den anderen zijn. Geene getuigenis omtrent den persoon, hoe sterk ook, zou kunnen worden aangenomen om te doen blijken, dat Thompson, die komt om te stemmen, geregistreerd was als Smith. Dit is niet enkel eene fout in de spelling van den geslachtsnaam maar het is eene ganseh andere geslachtsnaam. Maar Thompson zou kunnen geregistreerd zijn als Thomsen, want dit is louter eene vergissing in de spelling, en de namen Visser en Fisher, Lambser en Lotser, de Villiers en Viljee, Haupt en Hoof, zijn voorbeelden van eene soort van verbasteringen, die men wel in aanmerking moet nemen. Maar telkens wanneer een kiezer een naam opgeeft, die op eenigerlei wijze verschilt van den geregistreerden naam, zal de beambte van stemopneming, bij het schrijven van den naam in het Stemboek, eien naam aanteekenen, zoo als die geregistreerd is, zoodat de toelating tot het stemmen zal kunnen worden verklaard.

No. 4,177.

THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE

Government Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1869.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.—No. 309, 1869.

Colonial Office, 28th October, 1869.

THE following instructions are published for the guidance of Returning and Polling Officers at the forthcoming Elections of Members of the House of Assembly of the Cape of Good Hope.

By command of His Excellency the Governor,

R. SOUTHEY,
Colonial Secretary.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF RETURNING OFFICERS.

1. In opening the court for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer will refer to the Proclamation by which it is directed, and to the object for which it is held.

2. The order in which the candidates shall be proposed will probably be arranged by themselves or by their committees. Should any question arise upon this point the matter should be decided by lot in open court.

3. Should the candidates wish to address the electors, they will be at liberty to do so after the nominations have been made, and they ought to do so in the order in which they were proposed.

4. Probably no one, except a proposer, a seconder, or a candidate, will desire to speak. But no elector who may have questions to put to the candidates, or observations to address to the other electors, is to be regarded as out of order. At what time and to what length such an elector is to be heard must depend upon circumstances, and the general feeling of the audience.

5. Proposers, seconders, candidates, and all others who may have to speak, will generally (perhaps always) speak in English. But there is no legal objection to their speaking in Dutch.

6. Requisitions have been, in many instances, presented to candidates for the House of Assembly, soliciting them to stand. But no requisition or previous notice is necessary, and therefore, no candidate can be objected to upon the ground that he is proposed without any requisition, or previous notice that he was to be put in nomination.

7. Generally speaking, any person qualified to be registered as a voter in any electoral division, Western or Eastern, is qualified to be elected as a member of Assembly for any electoral division, Western or Eastern. There are, however, three exceptions to this general rule: 1st, Government officers; 2nd, uncertificated insolvents; and 3rd, aliens who have been registered by virtue merely of deeds of burghership. These three classes of persons can be registered and elect, but they cannot themselves be elected.

8. If, in any case, a Government officer, an uncertificated insolvent, or an alien should be proposed and seconded, and should be objected to as ineligible, the question will arise whether the returning officer should or should not recognize the party as a candidate. It is considered that the returning officer should recognize him as such. The law has not made the returning officer the judge of the eligibility of the candidates. He has, in fact, no means, upon the spot, of judging of the eligibility of the candidates. He cannot swear a candidate objected to, nor any other person; and even if he could, the best evidence upon the point may be documentary, and at a distance. The returning officer, it would seem, should treat as a candidate every person duly proposed and seconded. If any person should put forward as a candidate a disqualified person, the other candidates, or their friends, will, no doubt, cause ample public notice of the disqualification to be given to the electors. The effect of this public notice will, in case a disqualified candidate should be untimately returned, be determined in the proper quarter. The law, however, does not seem to cast the responsibility of rejecting ary candidate, as disqualified, upon the returning officer, and it is conceived he ought not to assume it.

9. When no greater number of candidates are proposed than there are members to be chosen, the duty of the returning officer will simply be to declare the candidates duly elected. When there is thus no contest, the fitting time for the candidates, or any electors, to address the assembly would seem to be after the former shall have been declared duly elected.

10. In case more candidates are proposed than can all be elected, a show of hands is to be called for by the returning officer. It is needless to point out that this sort of general appeal to the public feeling can never be made with anything like precision. To count hands on such an occasion, and for such a purpose, would be a mere waste of time. The returning officer will form, as best he can, a comparative estimate of the number held up. But he will not, of course, attempt to separate electors from non-electors in the mixed assembly, since any such attempt would lead to delay and confusion, and be fruitless of practical result.

11. When the returning officer has announced, to the best of his judgment, the result of the show of hands, any candidate, or any voter acting for any candidate, may demand a poll. Thereupon, the returning officer will take from each candidate, or from some one on behalf of each candidate, security in £50, for the payment of a proportional share of the expenses of the poll. This security will, it may be assumed, be always ready. If not, the returning officer will be governed by the provisions of the 48th Section of the Constitution Ordinance, which are full and explicit upon the subject, and meet every possible case.

12. After security has been given by or on behalf of each candidate, the returning officer must, before adjourning the court, announce the days upon which the poll will be taken at the respective polling places. This he will do by reading out the names of the polling places, and the days on which the poll will be taken at each of them respectively.

13. The names of the candidates who have been put in nomination must be posted at each polling place for, at the very least, three clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll at such place.

14. Under these circumstances, and as no returning officer can be certain, until the court has been held, that there will be no poll taken in his electoral division, he will see the propriety of preparing beforehand, and having in his possession on the day of nomination, a notice, to be read out in court, as already mentioned, and afterwards posted at the court-room, stating the day and the hour at which the poll will open at each respective polling place, and the day and the hour at which it will close.

15. In framing this notice the returning officer will affix the days for the several polling places as early as may be consistent with due care to allow ful time for the polling officers destined to take the poll thereat to be at their posts, and for the fixing up thereat, for at least three clear days, of the names of the candidates put in nomination, and of the days and hours of the commencement and the close of the poll at the respective polling places.

16. Three clear days mean three days exclusive of the day of posting the notice at the polling place, and of the day of commencing to take the poll at the polling place. Thus, if the notice be posted at any polling place on the 20th of a month, the poll cannot commence there before the 24th.

17. It will be observed that the 49th Section of the Constitution Ordinance directs the returning officer, when delivering or transmitting to the polling officer appointed to take the poll at any polling place a list of the registered voters for the division, to deliver or transmit to the same person, at the same time, the names of the candidates who have been proposed, and the same section then directs the polling officer receiving the names to post them up at the polling place forthwith. This is the posting up between which and the taking of the poll three clear days must elapse. This 49th Section seems to have contemplated that the polling officer would probably be a person resident at or near the polling place. There may cases, be however, in which the polling officer does not reside at or near the polling place, and in that case, if there is to be no posting of names at any polling place until the polling officer arrives at the polling place and posts them, the polling officer must necessarily remain there at least three clear days doing nothing. This might, in many cases, be an inconvenience.

18. The inconvenience just described could be avoided in case the polling officer, after receiving from the returning officer the names of the proposed candidates, were able to cause them to be posted at the polling place which he is to visit, before and in anticipation of his own arrival there. It is presumed that in some cases, at least, the notice containing the names of candidates, and the time when the poll is to open and to close at a particular polling place (for a single notice may embrace both points, and both are necessary), might be safely sent forward by the polling officer to the field-cornet, or some other trustworthy person, with a request that he will fix it up securely, and without delay, in some conspicuous place at such polling place, for public information. By this means, the pollin officer will not be obliged to arrive at the polling place sooner than will be necessary to take the poll. But if, in any case, no means exist of securing, with certainty, the safe transmission and punctual posting of the notice referred to, so that the notice shall, in anticipation of the arrival of the polling officer, be posted not less than three clear days before the day named in the notice for the opening of the poll, it will be more prudent, in fixing the day for the opening of the poll at such a polling place, to allow time for the polling officer to arrive at it, and post there himself the notice in question for three clear days before the commencement of the poll. This notice, whether sent on at once by the polling officer to be posted by some one else, or kept in his possession to be posted by himself, ought to be signed by him in attestation of its genuineness.

19. The returning officer must provide each polling officer with a certified copy of the list of registered voters in the division. It is recommended to the returning officers that as often as one Sunday, or more than one, intervenes between the day of the nomination of candidates and the day of taking the poll at all or any of the polling places, to cause a notice similar to that which he himself posts at his court-room on the day of nomination to be posted, as soon as possible, at or near the principal place or places of worship in his division, for the purpose of additional publicity.

20. When the elections shall have been concluded, and the returning officer shall have received from the several polling officers of his division their poll-books or poll-lists hereinafter mentioned, he will cast up and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate.

21. The final duty of the returning officer will be that of holding a court for making proclamation of the members whom he shall find to have been returned. At this court he will state the number of votes given for each candidate. And he will, without delay, certify in writing to the Colonial Secretary the names of the members elected, and the number of votes received by the respective candidates.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF POLLING OFFICERS.

1. It is to be borne in mind that voters, when voting for members of Assembly, vote simply by word of mouth, and not by filled or signed lists, as for members of Council.

2. The polling officer will take care to be provided with faint-lined paper books, having separate columns for the several candidates, headed by their names; and as the voter names the candidate or candidates for whom he votes, the polling officer will write down the voter's name, and mark opposite to it, in the proper column, for whom he votes.

3. Except in the electoral division of Cape Town, in which every voter has four votes, every voter has two votes, and no more. And, except in Cape Town, no voter can give to one candidate more than one vote. But every voter may, should he think fit, vote for only one candidate.

4. In the electoral division of Cape Town, which returns four members, every voter is entitled to give four votes, and may give all his votes to one candidate, or divide them equally or unequally among any of the candidates as he thinks fit. But in Cape Town, as in other electoral divisions, the voters will vote by word of mouth, and not by lists.

5. No voter is bound to vote only in his own ward. Every polling place in an electoral division is open to every voter of that electoral division.

6. It is considered that in every case in which any voter comes to vote at a polling place out of his own ward, and, perhaps, in many other cases also, the polling officer will do well to put the following question, which is in the terms authorised by law:—"Have you already voted, either here or elsewhere, in this electoral division, for any member of the House of Assembly?" It will be borne in mind that any person giving a wilfully false answer to the question is liable to be imprisoned, with hard labour, for a term of two years.

7. No polling officer should, under any circumstances whatsoever, receive a vote for any person not proposed and seconded as a candidate.

8. The polling officers will be careful not to receive a vote from any person not registered. But a person whose identity is indisputable, and who is beyond doubt the person meant to be accurately registered, and who was supposed to be accurately registered, may not, after all, be accurately registered. The polling officer must be governed in all such cases by the principle involved in the concluding clause of Section 41 of the Constitution Ordinance. He must pay attention to two points. He must first be satisfied that the person appearing before him to vote is the identical person meant to be registered. If the name given in by the voter be the same name precisely as the name on the registered list in the polling officer's possession,—and if nothing appear to show that another person of the same name exists, who is the person meant to be registered,—there can be no difficulty. But if the person appearing before the polling officer to vote give in more christian names, or fewer christian names, or different christian names from those entered on the registered list, a difficulty arises. If, however, the identity be established, the variance in the christian names is not to disfranchise the voter. Petrus Jacobus de Villiers may come forward to vote, and no such name may be found on the registered list. But if Paulus Johannes de Villiers appears upon the list, and it be made clear that these wrong names were meant for the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, then the right man, Petrus Jacobus de Villiers, should be allowed to vote. Nor will an error in spelling even the surname deprive the voter of his right to vote, in case the identity of the person be established. The surname, however, of the person coming to vote must either bear the same sound as the surname given to him on the registered list, or the one name must be some corruption of the other. No evidence of identity, however strong, could be admitted to show that Thompson, who comes to vote, was registered as Smith. This is not simply an error in the spelling of the surname; it is a different surname altogether. But Thomson might be registered as Thompson, for this is a simple error of spelling, and the names Visser and Fisher, Laubscher and Losber, De Villiers and Viljee, Haupt and Hoof, are samples of a class of corruptions which must be allowed for. But as often as a voter gives in a name differing in any way from the name of registry, the polling officer, in entering his name in the poll-book, should state the name by which he is registered, so that his admission to vote may stand explained.
